STATE EXECUTES FOUR BANDITS

REPORT MAZER TO TURN STATE'S EVIDENCE

Promise Mazer Immunity For His Testimony

Canton Authorities Get Much Information From Indicted Man

WILL AID SOLUTION OF MELLETT CRIME

Mystery Witness To Appear Before Grand Jury At Canton Tuesday

(International News Service)
CANTON, O., March 7.—In return for the information which he has given the state, Louis Mazer, Canton, third man indicted for the Don Mellett murder of July 16, last, will be given immunity, County Prosecutor Henry Harter Jr. announced here today.

Harter and Ora Slater, Cincinnati detective, after a three-hour conference with Mazer Sunday, both say they believe his story.

To Be State Witness

"I expect to use Mazer as a state witness", Harter declared this morning, "and if he is used as a state witness and tells the truth he will be granted immunity.

"The information which Louis Mazer has given is considered very valuable by the state. Particularly as against those persons, already named as conspirators, and, while it may not and probably will not result in return of additional indictments at this time, the state thinks it will aid materially in the solution of the entire conspiracy."

Sinclair Faces Contempt Charge; Trial Starting

Teapot Dome Back In Court As Sinclair Case Is Called Today

SINCLAIR INDICTED ON SEVEN COUNTS

Defense Will Contend That Questions Were Not Within Inquiry Rights

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Teapot Dome went to court today.

Four years and 11 months after the execution of the celebrated Mammoth Oil Company contract for the great Wyoming naval oil reserve, and more than three years after the revelations of the Senate oil committee's inquiry into the leasing policies of the Harding administration, Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire oil operator, appeared for trial in the supreme court of the District of Columbia on seven counts of contempt for refusal to answer questions propounded by the Senate committee members.

The trial, before a jury in the court of Justice William Hitz, involves for the first time in history a direct challenge of Senate authority to investigate what and when it will.

The trial will require probably less than two weeks, both sides having agreed upon the essential facts in the case. They plan to push directly to argument upon the constitutional questions involved immediately upon selection of the jury.

Story Retold

Although the entire story of the Teapot Dome leasing by former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall will again be presented in the trial record, the decision will be, not upon the validity of the lease or the alleged conspiracy incident to its execution, but solely upon whether Sinclair violated section 102 of the federal code in refusing to answer ten questions put to

Pittsburgh Police Await Description Of Youth Sought In Wisconsin

MAY BE OLSON, SOUGHT FOR CRIME

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, March 7.—Police today awaited word from Wisconsin authorities to whom they sent a detailed description of a youth whose body was brought to the county morgue, a suicide, here, in the belief that it may be that of Erdman Olson, Prairie Du Chien farmer's son sought in connection with the death of his sweetheart last September.

Peter A. Connors, head of the homicide squad, reported the description of the youth who took his own life in a rooming house here tallies almost exactly with that given him by Wisconsin authorities as Olson's.

A revolver, found beside the body, is being checked by police in an effort to determine where it was purchased.

Western Japan Suffers Quake; Theater Falls

Reports Say 80 Are Killed As Earth Trembler Collapses Theater

TWO TOWNS ARE LIKELY DESTROYED

American Tourists In District Are Reported To Have Escaped

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
TOKIO, March 7.—Eighty persons were reported killed in Osaka today following the collapse of a theater which was shaken to the earth by a severe trembler which rocked all of western Japan.

Indefinite reports received from the Sanin district, which appears to be the hardest hit, indicated the towns of Yoneko and Toyooka, facing the Japan Sea, had been totally destroyed. The town of Nagoya was also badly shaken.

Americans Uninjured

Several hundred American tourists visiting in the Kobe, Kyoto and Nagoya districts were reported uninjured. They had landed from the steamer California.

Fifteen fires broke out in Osaka subsequent to the quake, but prompt action prevented them from spreading, it was reported.

Kobe was in total darkness after the quake, all the electric light plants being put out of order by the trembler.

COUNTY ENGINEER TELLS OF PLANS

First Sewer To Be Extension Out West Washington Street For Half Mile

Sewer system for Union township will be begun with the building of a sewer in West Washington street from the city line to Scotland road, according to C. H. Milholland, county engineer of Lawrence county. Just as soon as possible work will be started on this project.

The supervisors of Union township have been delayed for several months in planning for the financing of this project, but in an interview with C. L. Seibert, division engineer of the state department of health, he said that they must go ahead with the project and then as soon as possible bring before the people a bond issue for financing the entire project.

Certificates of indebtedness will be issued and enough funds obtained for a half-mile of sewer on Washington street from the city line. The other portions of the WASHINGTON, March 7.—A court clash between the Reed campaign fund committee and the Republican organization of Pennsylvania loomed today over the pending effort of the committee to seize 250,000 additional ballots in connection with the contest initiated by William B. Wilson, Democrat, to unseat Senator William S. Vare, Republican.

The committee unanimously voted to impound the ballots in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Delaware and Schuylkill counties following a request from Wilson. All these counties were Vare strongholds and were the only up-state counties carried by the Republicans in the general election. The move, it was said, will be fought by the Republican organization, which challenges the power of the committee to func-

New York Man Slays Wife And Tries Suicide

Before Eyes Of Priest Who Married Them, Husband Fires Bullet Into Brain

WIFE FOUND SLAIN IN APARTMENT

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 7.—Before the eyes of the priest who two years ago made them man and wife, at a joyous wedding ceremony, Aloysius Joseph, 26, sent a bullet through his brain, falling beside the body of his wife, Elizabeth, 24, whom he murdered a half hour earlier.

Joseph was taken to Bellevue hospital, where he is not expected to live through the day.

"Father I just shot my wife."

Father Sheridan rushed to the apartment. There he saw Mrs. Joseph on the floor, two bullet holes in her right temple. The priest turned to Joseph.

"Your wife is dead."

"Father, forgive", Joseph gasped.

With this utterance Joseph placed the muzzle of his revolver, a .25-caliber automatic, to his head and pulled the trigger. He fell beside the body of his wife.

An ambulance was summoned from Bellevue hospital. Joseph was rushed there, with little hope of saving him.

New Castle, Pa.

Dear George: The last letter I wrote you was from St. Petersburg. I want to tell you what the New Castle bunch did to us when we left there. They got a bag full of rice and as the bus started off they threw the rice all over us, making the passengers on the bus think we are a bride and groom. We did not look anything like a bride and groom, but that bunch tried to embarras us. It was a good joke as far as they were concerned.

After a five-hour ride we reached Orlando and we are stopping at the Fort Gatlin hotel, and the landlord is Charles C. Harry,

Police Activities Slow In February

Police activities during February according to the mayor's report to council, were slow and as a result the fines and forfeits collected by Mayor William Dunlap were small, probably the smallest since he entered office, although he is not afflicted with a craze, manifested by some mayors of other cities, of breaking police court receipt records. The amount taken in was $821.

One hundred and seventy-eight persons were arrested and among them were nine persons suspected of being "suspicious characters."

Intoxication dropped off, in fact, according to police, drunkenness was at a minimum during February. Only 35 persons were arrested on that charge which shows that the city of New Castle, so far as illicit liquor is concerned is "dry." It is reported that there are less liquor holes here than there are wet places in the Saraha. Not one arrest for liquor transporation was made.

Elevator Falls Several Feet And Strikes W. O. Gere

William O. Gere, R. D. No. 3, employed as fireman-laborer at the New Castle postoffice, was severely injured about 8:45 o'clock this morning while at his work in the postoffice, when the elevator fell suddenly and unexpectedly and struck him on the head. He was most fortunate that the blow was a glancing one.

He was removed to the Shenango Valley hospital following the accident and late this afternoon his condition was reported as being as good as could be expected. His recovery from his injuries was indicated.

According to the hospital authorities, he sustained a severe blow on the forehead and injuries of the right leg. While the full extent of the injury to his head has not been determined and an X-ray may be required to determine the same, it is believed that the injury is not as serious as at first feared and that he will recover from the effects of his injury in a short time.

Four Olney Bank Bandits Die In Electric Chair

Second Time In History Of State Quartet Pays Extreme Penalty

GANG LEADER IS FIRST TO GO

All Legal Moves To Save Men Are Futile; Robbery Of Daring Nature

(International News Service)
STATE PRISON, ROCKVIEW, Pa., March 7.—Paying the penalty for the slaying of Patrolman Harry M. Cooper of Philadelphia, the four Olney bank bandits went to their death in the electric chair here shortly after seven o'clock this morning.

Joseph Curry, leader of the gang; Harry Bentley, William Juliano and Frank Doris were electrocuted in the order named.

The bandits all were resigned to their fate and maintained a calm outward appearance to the end.

Curry Dies First

Curry, who fired the fatal shot, went first. The prison physician pronounced him dead at 7:06 a. m.

Bentley, who was with Curry when the former shot Patrolman Cooper, followed his companion to the chair and was pronounced dead at 7:14.

Juliano paid the penalty next. He was pronounced dead at 7:24.

At 7:32 Doris, the fourth bandit, died in the electric chair.

Patrolman Cooper was killed on May 4, last, while he was trying to apprehend two of the bandits who a few minutes before held up and robbed William L. Miller, a messenger for the Olney Bank and Trust

Cyclone Wipes Out Shipping

(International News Service)
CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Mar. 7.—Shipping in the Harbor of Tamatave, principal seaport on the eastern coast of the Island of Madagascar, was virtually wiped out by the cyclone which swept the island Saturday, in which 500 lives were lost, according to messages from there today. Not a boat remains afloat in the harbor today, the message said.

Thousands of the inhabitants of the island are without food and shelter. A steamer belonging to the government of the Island of Mauritus has been despatched to Madagascar with relief supplies.

A light cable had caught and Mr. Gere is believed to have given it a jerk to loosen it. The result was that the elevator dropped possibly four or five feet from the first floor, where it was at the time.

As it descended suddenly and without warning, the edge of it struck Mr. Gere on the forehead and knocked him backward into the basement. His right leg was twisted as he fell.

MARMOLA Prescription Tablets The Pleasant Way to Reduce

Town Talk

Motorists who have occasion to travel the short stretch of street through the West Side diamond to the end of State street can have all of the sensation of riding a boat on a choppy lake. It is seldom that a street is found that is as rough and bumpy as this section. It should be given attention at once as it is a much traveled thoroughfare and is in terrible condition.

Residents of the farm districts in the country who are not on the concrete highways have had a hard winter at least as far as auto traffic is concerned. The roads are deep with mud and have been for a large part of the winter, due to the spells of mild weather. Even the ashed roads are in some places difficult to travel at the present time.

Work has been started on cutting a street through the old Berger woods on Highland avenue The street runs at right angles to Highland avenue and goes through to Albert street. Many of the trees in the woods have been cut down.

It cant come warm spring weather too soon for the coal men. The soggy weather conditions with the ground several inches deep with mud make it difficult to deliver coal to many homes in the city let alone those that are in districts in the suburbs where roads and alley ways are hard to travel. In many cases it has been necessary to dump coal on the street and then carry or wheel the entire load to the house.

Lawrence county good roads certainly did not lack appeal to Ohio motorists yesterday. Hundreds of cars carrying Ohio licenses were seen on the streets here during the day.

Residents of the Smithfield-Washington street district, especially those who own garages, are being annoyed to death at the present time by frequent visits of polecats, which seem to have migrated to and located in that district. In fact, it has become such a nuisance that it is reported that the residents of the particular district which appears to be infected with the animals are planning to form a "vigilance" committee, which will have as its painful duty the killing on sight of the obnoxious animals.

Company, of $80,417 in cash and $20,000 in checks.

Lives of Scores Endangered

The bandits in a touring car appeared at the bank's door as the messenger started to leave. The lives of scores of pedestrians were endangered when the bandits opened fire. The bank is located at one of the business intersections in Olney, a Philadelphia suburb.

Testimony at the trial showed that Juliano grabbed the money bags from Miller while his companions set up a protecting barrage of gunfire to hold the crowd at bay.

As the bandits started for their machine, Patrolman Louis Pizzo, appeared on the scene and standing in the middle of the street, with no protection from the bandits' steady rain of bullets, he emptied his revolver in the direction of their car, disabling it.

With this the bandits leaped out and fled, Juniano dropping the money bags when he saw the patrolman and a crowd pursuing him.

Officer Fatally Wounded

Pizzo finally captured Juliano and Doris was overpowered a few minutes later after a chase.

At the points of revolvers, testimony at the trial showed, Curry and Bentley forced a milkman to turn over his wagon.

Patrolman Cooper, off duty, heard their shots and commandeered a passing automobile to give chase.

The patrolman, standing on the running board, exchanged shots with the bandits until he fell, wounded in the breast, temple and face. Curry, who fired the fatal shot, and Bentley were captured later.

It was the first time four men had been electrocuted for a single crime in Pennsylvania since June, 1921, when four Erie men paid the penalty, and the second time in the history of the deathhouse.

When their counsel, Attorney C. Stuart Patterson, informed the four condemned men that he had exhausted every source of further stay of sentence, they became resigned to their fate, their guards in the death cell said.

The men were awakened at 5:30 o'clock this morning, two hours before the death march started. They received the ministrations of the Rev. Father B. A. O'Hanlon of State College, Pa. He also accompanied them to the death chamber.

Legal Moves Fail

A long series of legal moves by Attorney Patterson were started when the lower courts overruled motions for retrial of the bandits. An appeal to the supreme court was taken on September 22, but on December 6, the high court ruled against the appeal.

Gifford Pinchot, then Governor, set the date of executions for January 31, 1927, but when Patterson claimed he had unearthed new evidence Gov. John S. Fisher granted the men respites while a new appeal for commutation of sentence was taken to the pardon board. On February 16, the board denied the final appeal and the execution date was set.

Friends of Doris conducted an extensive campaign for commutation for him because he was under arrest 15 minutes before Curry shot Patrolman Cooper. But the courts and pardon board held Doris equally guilty with the others because he was a member of the gang which staged the robbery.

Carry Crucifix

Curry, Bentley and Doris slept well through the night, the guards reported, but Juliano snatched only a few restless moments of sleep.

After receiving the ministrations of the Rev. Father O'Hanlon, each of the four men was given a Crucifix which was carried to the death chamber, across the hall from the death cells. Curry kissed the crucifix just before the black mask was adjusted over his face.

None of the men said anything in the death chamber. Except for Juniano only one contact of 2,000 volts was required to carry out the sentence of the court. Two contacts were needed for Juliano.

Six newspapermen, including Ralph T. Smith, for the International News Service, and six official witnesses remained in the death chamber during the executions. After Curry and Bentley were electrocuted the first six witnesses were replaced by others.

Quartet Dies Gamely

The electrocutions were carried out with machine-like precision, devoid of any dramatics, except that Juliano snatched a crucifix from the hand of the attending priest as he was led into the death chamber. Juliano held the relic until strapped to the chair.

Bentley assumed a defiant attitude after partaking of a hearty breakfast, but went to his death without visible fear while spiritual consolation was offered him.

The witnesses, seated on concrete benches in the death chamber, listened to the measured tread of prison guards shortly after seven a. m. and saw Joseph Curry, leader of the gang, step into the room, an officer at either hand.

Robert Elliott, executioner, who acts in the same capacity for the states of New Jersey, Massachusetts and New York, took his position at the electric switch. Physicians and guards stood motionless for a moment. Curry, pale and tight-lipped, sat strapped in his chair. There was hardly a perceptible movement of the executioner's arm, and Curry's body became taut as he sat, then slumped and relaxed.

It was one of the few instances, perhaps the only one in Pennsylvania where the state has demanded the supreme penalty from a man who was under arrest at the time the crime for which the death penalty was inflicted, took place.

Such was the case of Frank Doris the last of the quartet to die in the electric chair. Doris was held equally responsible for the crime along with the other three because he was present and aided in staging the robbery which led to the slaying of the patrolman according to testimony at his trial.

SINCLAIR FACES CONTEMPT CHARGE; TRIAL STARTING

him by the Senate investigating committee on December 4, 1923.

The questions bore directly upon the negotiations surrounding the leasing of the reserve to Sinclair's Mammoth Oil Company, one being the direct query whether Sinclair had, during the negotiations, "given or loaned anything to Secretary Fall".

Another had to do with the terms of a contract between Sinclair and F. G. Bonfils and John Leo Stack of Denver relative to their claims of a prior right to the Teapot Dome reserve, which were charged to have been quieted by $250,000 from Sinclair. A third question had to do with a similar agreement with John C. Shaffer, former Denver newspaper publisher.

Section 102 of the revised statutes, under which Sinclair was indicted, declares to be guilty of a misdemeanor any person who, having been summoned before a committee of either house of Congress, refuses to answer any question pertinent to the question under inquiry.

The defense will be that the questions propounded were not within the normal scope of an inquiry designed to facilitate the legislative function of the Senate, and that when the committee attempted to go beyond that function it exceeded its constitutional authority.

REED COMMITTEE IS FACING CLASH ON BALLOT SEIZING

tion during the recess of Congress. The courts will be asked to decide the issue.

Issue Raised

"The issue of the committee's authority certainly will be raised if it attempts to seize these ballots", said Senator David A. Reed, Republican, of Pennsylvania, today. "I think the ballots should be surrendered by the Pennsylvania authorities only to the Senate committee on privileges and elections. I don't believe the Reed committee has the power to impound them now that Congress has adjourned."

The Pennsylvania Reed pointed out that when he filed Vare's credentials, just before the Senate adjourned, they were referred to the Senate elections committee. So, too, was the formal contest filed on behalf of Wilson. This action by the Senate, he added, ended the Reed committee's jurisdiction.

Have Ample Power

Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, chairman of the committee, however, declared that it would proceed to impound the ballots. The committee has ample power to do this, he said, under the recent decision of the supreme court, which held that Senate committees could act during the recess of Congress.

"It was the unanimous opinion of our committee that it is our duty to take possession of additional ballot boxes in Pennsylvania and the election papers (pollbooks) in connection with them, and to preserve them for such uses as may be deemed proper in the future," said the Missouri Reed. "The committee wants to proceed in a practical way and will preserve the ballots for whatever action the Senate orders when it reconvenes."

TO START SEWER SYSTEM SOON IN UNION TOWNSHIP

sewer sytem will require a bond issue which will be voted on at the next regular election.

To Assign Cost.

Should the bond issue fail to pass then the matter will come up between the individual owners of property and the state health department. The state health department will require the building of tight vaults and the construction of these with the care of them will cost each property owner much more than a sewer system.

The cost of the sewers are to be assigned only to the properties benefited, said County Engineer C. H. Milholland, but in order to get the funds for going ahead on the project a bond issue must be obtained in which the township will stand back of the project. After the system is all constructed then the cost will be assigned to the owners of property benefited, so the bond issues will be of short duration.

The sewer to be built will empty into the sewer system of the city of New Castle and as soon as possible an entire system will be built which will include all the territory contiguous to West New Castle.

PROMISE MAZER IMMUNITY FOR HIS TESTIMONY

34, shortly before murder of Don R. Mellett, Canton newspaper publisher, July 16, last, is expected to appear before the Stark county grand jury here Tuesday, it was learned today.

The man, whose name is being withheld, knew of the murder plot, according to his story, but up until now has been afraid to divulge that knowledge.

Mazer, Canton underworld character, who is in the county jail awaiting trial on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Mellett, will also appear before the grand jury to tell his "complete" story, which has already been given to Prosecutor Henry Harter Jr., it was said. McDermott, convicted of complicity in the Mellett killing, is now serving a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary, while Streitenberger, former Canton detective, is in the Canton workhouse following his indictment and arrest Thursday on a charge of first degree murder.

"White Primary" Law Is Illegal

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Texas "white primary" law which prohibits negroes from voting in a Democratic primary election was held unconstitutional by the supreme court today.

The court's decision was rendered on the appeal of Dr. L. A. Nixon an El Paso negro, who sued C. C. Herndon and Charles Porras, election officials for $5,000 damages after being refused the right to vote.

Start Movement At W. & J. To Change Old College Song— State Notes

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Because the old time lager beer is constitutionally non-existent, a movement is on foot here, sponsored by Mrs. S. S. Baker, wife of the president of Washington & Jefferson college, to do away with the famed "pep" song about—"I love my dear old college and I love my lager beer." The college part of the song has Mrs. Baker's approval but the rest, she says, is "out".

CONEMAUGH, Pa., March 7.—Police are seeking Dustin Williams, 38, negro, in connection with the fatal stabbing of Mack Coleman, 29, proprietor of a negro boarding house here. Williams and Coleman are said by police to have quarreled shortly before the stabbing.

BUTLER, Pa., March 7.—Delegates to the semi-annual convention of the United Trades Council of western Pennsylvania here at its one-day session, heard Thomas G. Robertson, vice president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, outline unionist activities. More than 100 persons were in attendance, guests of the Butler labor council.

DINNER STORIES

The magician's turn at the vaudeville house was not going at all well, but he stuck to his task in the face of rows of faces more resigned than amused.

"Now," he said, wiping his hands on his handkerchief, "if any lady or gentleman can oblige me with an egg, I will proceed to perform a truly amazing trick."

For a moment there was silence, then from the gallery a voice rang out loud and clear:

"If anybody 'ere 'ad a egg, you'd 'ave 'ad it long ago."

Sh-h-h-h!

An architect remarked to a woman that he had been to see the great nave in the new church.

"Don't mention names," the woman replied. "I know the man you refer to."

Obeys Her Orders.

"Mary," said the mistress of the house to her maid, "I am rather tired and am going to lie down on the sofa for an hour. Come and call me at five o'clock if I happen to drop off, will you?"

She lay down and went to sleep. When she woke it was past six.

"Mary!" she cried indignantly, "why didn't you call me at five as I asked you to?"

"But, ma'am," said Mary, "you asked me to call you if you dropped off, and when I looked in at five o'clock you hadn't dropped off at all; you were lying on the sofa in the same place fast asleep!"

SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Frank Glasgow, Lowery street, entertained a number of little guests Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock in honor of the sixth birthday of her daughter Phyllis Palma. Games were enjoyed, and prizes were won by Charlotte Carr and Clarence Reese. Willis Foster, and Eleanor Kane. The honor guest received a number of lovely gifts.

Later refreshments were served in the dining room, where a large birthday cake centered the table, and yellow and white baskets filled with Easter eggs marked the places. Mrs. L. H. Gormley, assisted in serving.

Those present were Margaret Faller, Willis Foster, Paul Ankney, Ralph Turner, Katherine Kane, Charlotte Carr, Bob Carr, Grace Bauder, Mary Louise Kelly, Clarence Reese, Eleanor Kane, Vivian Carr.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT

H. C. Braden of 841 Beckford street, reported to the police Sunday that he was driving west on Court street, when his machine collided with that of Paul R. Young, R. D. No. 7, which was being driven north on Crawford avenue, at the intersection of the two streets. Both cars were damaged.

And for the Younger Girls
The Cutest Hats Imaginable

Your girlies if they are between the ages of two and ten will be about the sweetest ever in one of these hats. A hat for school or a hat for dress-up, they are all here.

Darling little school hats of hemp braid in nobby little shapes, with a band of ribbon, or one style the crown and brim is of one color with a band of lighter color—this is all the hemp braid; then to finish it off is a band of matching ribbon and two little quills stuck in at one side.

Then there are hats of leghorn and silk combinations—the crown of silk and brim of leghorn bound in the silk with elastic back. And little silk hats with accordian pleated ruffle and double faced ribbon to make a bow and streamers. The cutest of all is a faille silk tam with saucy little bow on the tip-top and long streamers.

Hats of fancy braids, all silk or silk and braid combinations. Bring little daughter in.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE NEW WHITE HOUSE

PRESIDENT AND MRS. COOLIDGE have been transferring their effects from the historic white house to the Patterson mansion in du Pont Circle. For several months to come this will be their official dwelling, and as it is within easy strolling distance of the executive office which Mr. Coolidge will continue to use, he will be like many of his fellow countrymen who arise each morning and walk to work.

The reason for this change, as we know, is that the white house needs repairs, including a new roof. This is not the first time that a President of the United States has had to seek new quarters during his term of office. One was the dramatic occasion when the white house was burned during the War of 1812. The last time was when President Roosevelt moved to a temporary home on Jackson Place in 1902 while the mansion was being reconditioned.

The renovated white house, containing "all modern improvements," is expected to be ready for occupancy in the fall of this year. The president will no doubt find it a pleasanter place to live in than it has been in the past.

But there are other gentlemen in different parts of the country who will be looking with longing eyes on the "new white house." Some of them would be quite willing to take it over, even without the improvements. The disturbing factor in their dreams is that Mr. Coolidge, with the approval of a majority of American voters, may decide that he would like to renew the lease for four years more.

KERENSKY IN U. S.

KERENSKY, the Russian who had his chance and failed, is in America for a two-month visit. After the Czar's downfall, he was hailed by some of his fellow Russians as a Danton or a Napoleon. He was neither. Somebody described him as a "theatrical and hysterical poseur." Some one else noted that he was "only a dictator by rhetoric."

The whirlwind of Bolshevism blew him out of power and out of Russia. Lenin and Trotzky took the place Kerensky had but was unable to hold. He comes now predicting the downfall of Communism and a change in the Soviet state? Is that his mission? If so, he might as well have saved his time, his travel and his breath, asserts the Public Ledger. Other prophets have foretold the downfall of the Kremlin regime year by year since 1917, but the hammer and sickle, white on a red field, remains the Russian flag. There is a kind of glacial slowness about the "downfall" so often predicted for these same Soviets.

SCARCITY OF LISTENERS

TO REFER to an individual as "a good listener" is by way of paying a high compliment, but it is a compliment scarcely deserved. The "good listener" is held in high esteem because of the rarity of the type, not because of any intrinsic merit. The demand is greater than the supply.

One seldom hears a good talker complimenting another's conversational excellencies, and for every good listener there is a large army of good talkers. It is because there are so many talkers searching in vain for somebody to listen to them that listening has become a cardinal virtue. If there were more listeners than talkers, listening would be the sin and talking the virtue.

Even the radio failed to make all the world a good listener. The best of listeners rarely leaves the dial unturned during a radio address.

However, what is the use of complaining against good listeners? They have the admiration and support of the majority because the majority are good talkers and lack the taste for talking to themselves.

Men who act serious all the time are considered funny.

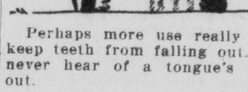
Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:58. Sun rises tomorrow 6:24.

When a fellow gets up on a cold, frosty morning and hears a robin singing outside his window, it makes him feel that maybe this old world isn't such a bad place in which to live after all. Robin redbreast hasn't butchered up his song with jazz. It's the same sweet song we heard in childhood, whose melody has charmed us through the years. God bless the robin, harbinger of Spring.

Of course we are interested in the Chinese situation and Babe Ruth's salary, but what concerns us more just now is whether or not the coal pile is going to hold out. Weather of the past week has been mighty hard on the coal pile. Our heart misses sometimes as we watch the ash pile grow bigger and the coal pile smaller. There's nothing that grinds a man more than to have to put up for another ton of coal, when he feels that warm weather is just around the corner.

Sometimes we pine for the good old days when a fellow could dig a little bait about this time of year and catch a good string of suckers in most any of our local streams. Zest was lent to the sport by a good fire on the river bank and a few eggs to boil in the empty bait can. Alas, for those good old days. There are no suckers in the rivers any more; they have all migrated to the land.



Perhaps more use really would keep teeth from falling out. You never hear of a tongue's falling out.

Somehow or other a big lump always rises in our throat when we think of the incubator chick. It comes into the world against its wishes. It has no father or mother. Nobody hands out cigars when it arrives; nobody gives it a bottle of sterilized milk. Not even a nurse to give it a bath. The poor little chick seeks in vain for a downy bed, it looks in vain for a loving caress. At the age of one day it faces a world of chicken appetites, alone. Its future, but we can't go any further; our typewriter letters are becoming blurred.

We have been reading a lot of gags in the newspapers about women not blushing any more. After mature study and deliberation as to the reason, we have reached the conclusion that it is because there is too much surface to cover.

A woman left $25,000 to the United States Government. There is a millenium that got by everyone without anyone noticing it.

When a man dies and leaves money, that is not news to the newspaper makers. But if he dies and takes his money with him—that is news.

It is really remarkable how many hatless young men are living through the winter. Now that they have demonstrated that it is possible to get along without wearing a hat they won't do it.

Some American business men will be overlooking a good bet if they fail to boost the price of tea because of the war in China.

A prediction has been made in New York that some of these days there will be ships that will cross the ocean in two days. When that is a hooch dream or a reality concerns us little now. But if it comes to pass us fellers who get a week or 10 days vacation will be able to do the continent and see London, Paris and the other places after all.

About a year ago a man in London married a young lady named Miss Luck. Today he is the father of triplets and now he says he married misfortune.

In New York where flask parties are said to be the mode, each man has to bring his own drink with him. The hosts also requests each man to bring along with his flask the card of his favorite undertaker.

The bill that President Coolidge signed prohibiting the sending through the mail of pistols that may be concealed on the person will lead to bigger and better firearms.

Nothing illustrates man's obstinacy more than the circumstances that but for the fact that moonshine licker is against the law he wouldn't be able to drink it at all.

Many men of this city and vicinity have been the recipients lately of unsolicited packages containing neckties. Accompanying the package is a letter in which it states that the recipient can keep the ties on the payment of such and such a price sent by return mail. A good way to break up the practice of sending miscellaneous matter through the mails unsolicited would be to keep it and let the senders whistle for their money. Even though the merchandise as a rule is no good the senders would soon be broken up if they didn't get something for it.

Comparing women to flowers is quite proper for when they fade they dye.

If you love your dog you had better get a license for him and keep him from running at large. The enforced dog laws under Secretary of Agriculture C. G. Jordan will get him if you don't watch out.

One thing we won't have to worry about for the next nine months is the actions of Congress. That is one worry off our minds and off the minds of the business enterprises of the country.

A man in Maine made $366,000 net profit off 175,000 bushels of potatoes the past fall and winter. If the farmers of the west and midwest had a little Yankee blood and thrift grafted into them and started raising potatoes, they wouldn't need relief—they would be lending money to the manufacturing plants in the east.

A woman in Lorain, Ohio, who tripped in a hole in a sidewalk, fell and was injured, was awarded $10,000 by a jury when the case came to trial. That ought to be lesson enough for everyone to keep their sidewalks free of holes and also ice and snow when these elements are prevalent.

Alexander Kerensky says there are 18,000,000 idle people in Russia. The soviets believe in everybody being alike so they are all going to get a big loaf.

A plan has been suggested now to take all the kinks and curves out of the nation's highways, so autoists can make more speed and travel with less danger. We're in favor of that, and also of making the distances between north and south and east and west shorter.

SPOKE OUT OF TURN

This story is told on a prominent Westerner and happened in the days before prohibition. He was standing on a street corner when his attention was attracted to two unusually homely women who were conversing a short distance beyond. Turning to a business man acquaintance, he remarked, "Did you ever see a homelier woman in your life; who is she?"—indicating one of the women. "That's my sister," answered the business man. In a desperate effort to square himself the prominent citizen said, "I don't mean that lady but the other." "She is my wife," coldly remarked the acquaintance. Mumbling something about having to catch a train, the prominent citizen departed hastily and went on a spree that lasted a week and left him feeling more remorseful that ever.

RIGHT, FIRST TIME

"Before we were married you used to say there wasn't another man like me in the world."

SHE: I know, and now I should hate to think there was.

We are told of a girl who is so good that she won't even stay in a room with a clock that's fast.

With the fall election campaign coming on, we make a motion that all handshaking be abolished for a period of six months. During the last municipal election, our hand was wrung by so many candidates that it never has been the same hand since, and we are informed that county candidates are even worse. Who'll second the motion?

TOYS THAT BRING TEARS

Among the exhibits in the museum now housed in the imperial Russian palace are the playthings of the little Alexis, heir to the Russian throne who was murdered with the czar's family in 1918. Tears fill the eyes of many visitors as they look at them. The boy's favorites were a band of American toy soldiers. An American teddy bear, horse, and American mechanical toys, also are displayed.

Also, the way of the transgressor is hard on dad's pocketbook.

What this world needs is fewer strong minds and more strong hearts.

"Flossie, you are pretty scantily clad in that new ball dress," said a mother to her daughter.

"But mother," pleaded Flossie, "I haven't put my necklace on yet."

THE CHANGE

Some people start for Florida, and seem to think they must Inscribe upon their vehicles, "Florida or Bust!"
And after they have stayed awhile they come away disgusted
With the former sign consisting of a word like this one, "Busted!"

Some times it's the last step that counts, if you take it on the accelerator instead of the brake.

The reason a woman won't suffer in silence is because there isn't any use suffering if you can't get any sympathy.

It's the big noise that carries influence. There's no use trying to argue with a saxophone player.

UNLUCKIEST KIND OF CAT

Relative to the old superstition that it is unlucky to have a black cat cross your path. Angelo Scott says it sure is, especially if the black cat happens to have a white stripe running down its back, and you happen to run your car over it.

If young people were only blessed with second sight, there'd be fewer cases of love at first sight.

Ninety years ago Chicago became "a city" with "more than 3,500 population." Now the population is above 3,000,000 and Chicago is fourth city in the world for size, yet once was a little settlement around Fort Dearborn, frequently in danger of massacre by Indians.

Judge E. H. Gary's father, who went to Chicago early, could not be "fooled into buying a worthless farm on the muddy edge of Lake Michigan." That farm is the Michigan ave., lake front now, and would be worth about $100,000,000—everything grows rapidly.

Dr. Burton, chemist, retires as president of Indiana Standard Oil. He increased by billions of dollars the value of the national oil supply, invented the "cracking process" that doubles the amount of gasoline obtained from a given amount of oil. That is "making two blades of grass grow in place of one" on a billion-dollar scale.

No success that lasts is accidental, and that applies to Standard Oil.

Edward G. Seubert, succeeding Dr. Burton as president, went to work for Standard Oil when he was a boy, has been with the company thirty-five years, and is now president. When an opportunity offers in Standard Oil it is given to someone that has been in the organization for years. Railroads that pick and choose around the country for important executives might think that over.

Kingsbury, head of Standard Oil of California, says, "You can't find on any Standard Oil board a man that has not grown up with the organization."

The biggest wars are soon forgotten. Over a direct cable from the United States to Germany, President Coolidge wired President Hindenburg his hope that "this additional means of communication will promote mutual understanding and good will between the two countries." And President Hindenburg replied most politely. Germany, rid of an expensive fleet, expensive standing army and extremely expensive kaiser, attends to business and goes ahead more rapidly than any other country in Europe.

The latest German enterprise will take electricity from ocean water.

Hot surface waters of tropical seas will "transform" liquid carbonic acid into a gasiform carbonic acid," the tropical sea water being used as a fuel. After the gasiform has been utilized, it is retransformed into the liquid state by cold water pumped from lower depths of the same sea.

German scientists expect by this method to produce electricity at 10 per cent of the present cost. If Europe's international steel trust can develop cheap electricity in that way near a good supply of iron ore, or iron sand, it will turn out steel by the electric process at a price bound to cause hard thinking by Pittsburgh and other places made wealthy by iron and coal close together.

The big steel company knows the danger, and plans for steel production by electricity, building at least one plant, and buying great ore deposits in Brazil and elsewhere close to cheap water power.

Bishop James Wise of Chicago tells Episcopalians "unless America comes to a halt in its mad rush for wealth and pleasure, national moral destruction is at the end of the road."

That has been said often in the past, sometimes when conditions were much worse than they are now.

Fortunately, every new baby is a clean page, not injured by what happened before it was born; every generation is a new volume.

Back of the human race, controlling its destiny, there is a power greater than that of bootleggers, dance halls or a degenerate stage.

Bible Thought For Today

THE HOLY PLACE:—Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood, And hath not sworn deceitfully. Psalm 24:3, 4.

In Day's News

J. Butler Wright, the new United States Minister to Hungary, has had wide diplomatic training and experience, although he is not fifty years of age. Graduated from Princeton in 1899, he spent six years in New York in banking service, serving for four years in Honduras and then went to Brussels for a year. For the next two years he was stationed at Rio de Janiero, and in 1915 was acting chief of the Division of Latin American Affairs. Then came a year in Russia, followed by three years as counselor at the embassy in London. From London he returned to Brazil and from there went to Chile, where he remained until 1924, when he was recalled to Washington to become an Assistant Secretary of State.

NO INAUGURAL BALL

C. C. Young as governor-elect announced that there was going to be no inaugural ball when he took office. There hadn't been one for some years and he wasn't going to start one now.

Why should a governor have an inaugural ball anyhow? He is simply the state's principal hired man and the people elected him to do a certain job and there is no reason why he should not take hold of that job unostentatiously like any other employe.

We don't have a ball when a man is elected chairman of the steel corporation, nor do you fire off a cannon when you get a new manager for your stove works. By the same token we could spare the fireworks when any man takes a political job.

It is all right to have a pow-wow in Europe when they have a new king. Kings mean something socially over there and maybe they do here, as we saw a while ago when Queen Marie was amongst us.

But Kings and Queens and such like are not indigenous to America.

We know what a hired man means and what a superintendent means and we know he is chosen to do his job as well as he can, and we will be very grateful if he undertake his job without a concomitant vaudeville entertainment.

If people want to dance and sing and drink bootleg there are plenty of places for them to do so in the various night clubs and other resorts. Let the people who like that sort of thing do that sort of thing, but the most of us are hard-working and quiet citizens, going about our business and making no fuss and feathers over it, and we would like to see our political managers do the same, if they don't mind.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SHORT BUT FAMOUS

"Beware of the Ides of March" suggests one of the events of History that takes place in the month of March. February, which has just passed, is the shortest month of the year, but nothwithstanding the shortness of its days, there are commemmorated many events which ocurred during that month. It is, in fact, one of the most eventful months of History and Tradition, and is causing the banks and courts to close for a time all out of proportion to its length of days. The birthdays of two Presidents are celebrated, the 12th and the 22nd, commemorating the birth anniversaries of Lincoln and Washington. But February 2nd, "Candlemas" or "Ground Hog" day, and February 14th, St. Valentine's Day, come in for a considerable share of recognition also. Another president, William Henry Harrison, was born in February, as are numerous other of the world's most eminent and useful figures. In various states, one date or another has some special significance. February 12th is Georgia Day in that state, in honor of the landing of Oglethorpe in 1733. February 14 in Arizona is Admission Day. In several states Arbor Day is celebrated in February.

In History, the Augustan Era, the one immediately preceding the beginning of the Christian Era, began on February 14 in the year 27 B. C. In France the last week of February is the anniversary of the "February Revolution" in 1848, which brought about the downfall of the "July Monarchy" and the establishment of the Second Republic.

In the earliest Roman calendar the number of months seems to have been 10, starting with Martius or March. Later, reforms brought about the addition of two more, Januarius and Februarius, which were placed at the beginning, and the second of the two allotted 28 days, "except as Leap Year gives it 29" once in four years.

As to tradition, if your birth falls in February, you are affectionate, affable, courteous, loyal and sincere, and while not suspicious, you are quick to detect a lack of those qualities in others. You are likely to be talented, a brilliant conversationalist and possess an active mind. You are modest, seldom worry and do your best. Women become musicians and teachers and men business executives, politicians and orators.

And that's that!

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

I never see a gallant ship go steaming out to sea
But what a little boy who was comes running back to me.
A little chap I though was dead or lost forevermore
Who used to watch the ships go out and long to quite the shore.

He followed them to India, to China and Japan,
He told the flying sea gulls that he'd be a sailor-man.
"Some day," he said, "I'll own a ship and sail to Singapore,
And maybe bring a parrot back, or two or three or four."

And often when he went to bed, this little boy would lie
And fancy that the ceiling was a wide and starry sky;
The ocean was beneath him, and as happy as could be
He was master of a vessel that was putting out to sea.

But something happened to the lad, and now he is no more,
For in his place there is a man who never leaves the shore;
I often think of him as dead, but back he comes to me
Whene'er I see a gallant ship go steaming out to sea.

POEMS HOVE

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"Body's Beauty" by D. G. Rossetti.

This sonnet, one of the group which constitute "The House of Life" has always been a great favorite of mine. No one can read the whole series without catching some of its abundant beauty and marveling at Rossetti's perfect technique. This painter-poet lived from 1827 to 1882 and was one of the leaders of the pre-Raphaelite movement and he produced in 1861 many fine designs for stained glass. He wrote his most famous poem, "The Blessed Damozel" before he had reached the age of 20—one of the most wonderful poems in our language. He is a poet to be studied and loved. His sister is Christinia Rosetti also a poet of distinction.

Of Adam's first wife, Lilith, it is told
(The witch he loved before the gift of Eve)
That, ere the snake's, her sweet tongue could deceive,
And her enchanted hair was the first gold.
And still she sits, young while the earth is old,
And, subtly of herself contemplative,
Draws men to watch the bright web she can weave,
Till heart and body and life are in its hold.

The rose and poppy are her flowers, for where
Is he not found, O Lilith! whom shed scent
And soft-shed kisses and soft sleep can snare?
Lo! as that youth's eyes burned at thin, so went
Thy spell through him and left his straight neck bent
And round his heart one strangling golden hair.

State Calendar Extra Heavy As Solons Gather

Four-Day Week Sessions In Both Branches Of State Legislature Loom

MANY BILLS ARE UP FOR PASSAGE

Three Important Fisher Sponsore Measures Still In Doubt

By G. ROSS DOWNING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 7.—More administration legislation is expected for this week's session of the solons which will open tonight.

Weekly the administration gasoline tax bill, expected to carry a three-cent a gallon levy, an amendment to the workmen's compensation act and recommendations for appropriations to the various state-owned hospitals and penal institutions, have been predicted by the legislators. To say that the bills will make their appearance this week is just as much of a prediction as it has been heretofore.

Four Day Session

The first four-day week is in prospect for the House of Representatives this week. Neither body so far has held a Thursday session. If the House starts the four-day week Thursday, the Senate will probably adopt the policy as the 127th session draws nearer an end and work piles higher.

Fifty-seven bills will be up for final consideration in both Houses of the legislature tonight, making up the largest Monday night third-reading calendar that the lawmakers have faced.

Various public hearings on introduced bills in the hands of committee will be held this week. Among them will be the $50,000,000 welfare bond issue, the bill to prohibit stream pollution, the zoning bill for Philadelphia and the Sterling birth control bill.

Salary Raises Up

Forty-six bills, including the Marcus judicial salary raiser, are up for final action before the Senate tonight. The Marcus bill has passed the House and if approved by the Senate and Governor Fisher will add $915,000 a bi-ennium to the appropriation necessary for the courts.

But little opposition developed to the bill in the House, and so far none has appeared in the Senate. Despite its huge cost to the state it apparently is a subject on which members of the legislature do not care to be aligned with the negative side.

Half a dozen other salary raisers for various groups of city and county employes are included in those up for final action.

Seventeen bills which already have passed the House also are among those on which the Senate will vote finally tonight.

There are but seven bills listed on the second reading calendar. They include that of Mrs. Flora Vare, Philadelphia, which will pave the way for the erection of an additional bridge across the Delaware at Philadelphia.

The Senate usually is at least half an hour late beginning its session. With the calendar tonight even though the session starts promptly, it is doubtful if it will be possible to recess before midnight.

Final Vote on 11 Bills

In the House tonight there will be 11 bills up for final passage. Eight additional bills on the postponed calendar may be called up for action. Eighty bills on second reading calendar will insure an exceptional busy day tomorrow.

Among the bills to receive final action are the Hess measure creating the township road commission to study road conditions and make recommendations in second class townships and the Flinchbaugh bill, authorizing the construction of state-aid highways through and joining boroughs and incorporated towns.

If the administration gasoline tax is introduced tonight it probably will be thrown into the House hopper by Representative A. B. Hess of Lancaster. The welfare bond issue also will come up in the House.

The Furniture Sold On Our Budget Payment Plan

Is not the kind of furniture you can buy on the installment plan.

Young married people planning on making their first furniture investment should know thoroughly the difference between furniture sold on a budget payment plan, and under the installment plan.

There is as much difference between the type of furniture sold under these two systems as there is between the merchandise sold in credit stores and the kind sold in the reputable concerns who do a charge account business.

Each has its place, and each fulfills a service to its customers.

What we want to do is to point out to young people the fact that furniture of better quality, better design, made in the finest factories at Grand Rapids and other furniture centers, can be purchased without the full purchase price being paid at one time.

Furniture is an investment that young people do not make very often and therefore should be investigated thoroughly.

You are privileged to enter our store any time, stroll about our four great floors at will, make whatever comparisons you desire, (all goods marked with plain figures,) and it will be time well spent.

Come in and let us tell you more about our Budget Payment Plan, no obligations whatsoever.

Steam Shovel Starts Work At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Work of removing the mass of debris, all that remains of Old Main the administration building at Westminster college which was destroyed by fire January 24, is being hastened by the use of a steam shovel which arrived at the scene Saturday afternoon and started actual work Monday morning.

Since the fire thousands of good brick have been removed from the debris, but the process has been a slow one. Much of the remaining brick is worthless. The steam shovel will load the bricks into trucks which will convey it to the small ravine near the college gymnasium where it will be dumped.

Cleaning up of the site is necessary as it will improve the looks of the principal campus. The board of trustees will hold their annual March meeting within a few days at which time definite steps towards the erection of a new Old Main will be taken. It is hoped that by commencement time which comes in the early part of June the actual construction will be well underway.

Kansas Pool Hall Turns Church Again

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., March 7.—Erected in 1868 and used as a church, later turned into a school and then a pool hall and now back into a church again is the record of the Methodist Episcopal church at Milford which recently came into its own again.

Many years ago the congregation was disbanded and the church was used for a time as a school building. Later it was turned into a pool hall but several months ago the work of reorganization was begun and the congregation including some of those who worshipped 50 years ago is again attending services there.

Fifty years ago they didn't call it petting.

FLORIDA FRIENDS PELT MR. AND MRS. RENTZ WITH SHOWER OF RICE

formerly of New Castle, and well and favorably known there. We have met his wife and her sister, Mrs. Harry Barnhart, of New York, who is visiting her sister here. We were taken care of in fine shape in this beautiful hotel by Mr. Harry. The first persons we saw were E. E. McGill and G. G. Stitzinger of New Castle. Mr. McGill has been here for some time and Mr. and Mrs. Stitzinger have also been here for some time. Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson has a home here, near this hotel, and she and her son Tom are here. Mrs. S. W. Perry of New Castle is her guest. Mr. and Mrs. William K. Hugus and J. Russell Balph are also in this hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bryan and son Paul have a home here. Mrs. Bryan's father, Samuel Gibson, is with them. He is 91 years old and is spry for his age. He is a Civil War veteran and is enjoying good health. Mrs. Effie Miles is staying with the Bryans.

On Saturday morning we went to St. Cloud. Quite a few New Castleites are living there and also visiting there for the winter. The first person we saw as we drove into that burg was Chester O. Morrow, who was sitting in front of a hotel. A few minutes later Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mayne came along. We dropped into Sid McKay's furniture store and were chatting with Mr. and Mrs. McKay when Mrs. Humphreys, The News correspondent, dropped in. She was surprised to see us. We assured her that we would not compete with her correspondence, or even try to. From there we went to the Pennsylvania hotel, where we met Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, who are spending the winter at this hotel. We called on Mrs. George Gent, who lives here, and who is well known to New Castle people. We took in Bert Yoho's orange and grapefruit grove. Bert was away fishing, so we confined our visit to Mrs. Yoho. The Yohos are building a fine new winter home here and will have it ready by next fall.

Every Saturday afternoon a great meeting of veterans of the Civil War is held here in a large hall. All kinds of entertainment is furnished for the old soldiers. This is the largest G. A. R. post in the United States and still has 200 members. Sid McKay was down for a speech and when he was called on he got up and said he was going to furnish a substitute today, and I did not recognize that I was the substitute by the elaborate and extravagant way he introduced me. I did the best I could and got a lot of compliments, but most of the people did not say anything to me at all, so I am in doubt as to how my speech was received. I talked on patriotism and what Americans had accomplished for world decency. I got plenty of hand, anyhow, and that is what a speaker likes. If I were to start out again in life I would be a singer, as every singer gets an encore, no matter how rotten his song. I was only encored once when I made a speech and I found out afterwards a lot of the applauders were not exactly sober. I enjoyed the afternoon immensely. After the meeting Sid McKay took us in his feather-lined limousine and took us all over St. Cloud. He took us to his home and gave us some oranges that were the finest we ever tasted. We did not eat one of them until the next day, and it is a good thing we did not sample them at his place, as we would have eaten all he had. They were the best we ever tasted and if we ever go back there we will rob Sid's tree. That will not be necessary, as Sid would give his shirt to a New Castleite.

We started back to Orlando at five o'clock and got here at six o'clock. The distance is about 28 miles and can be made by bus.

On Sunday morning while we were sitting in the lobby of the hotel Miss Kate Morehead, who had charge of the Ellwood page in The News, but who is now on the Reporter-Star here, came in to see us. We had a fine visit and then along comes our good friend, E. E. McGill and takes us for a ride over this beautiful city. Miss Morehead wrote the "Hepsy" articles in The News last summer and is writing them here under the same name. She is making a hit in every way in the newspaper field here and is well liked.

We had our first experience with a guava on Saturday. These things are great to make jelly of, but they have a queer odor. A chap who had sent some North once went to the express office and asked the agent if his guavas had arrived, and the agent said they had, but he thought they were dead. Some people like them better than they do peaches, but we have a long way to go before we will prefer them to any kind of peaches.

On Sunday evening the New Castle people at this hotel were entertained by Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson at the field club with a dinner. Mrs. Johnson also entertained the same crowd at a fishing party on Monday afternoon at Apopka Lake. This lake is 25 miles long and is the third largest fresh water lake in America. G. G. Stitzinger and Tom Johnson caught most of the fish. Mrs. W. K. Hugus caught one, Mr. Balph caught one and Mrs. S. W. Perry also caught one. Twenty-one fine bass were caught and they were cooked and served at the dinner in the Fort Gatlin hotel that evening. This fishing party was greatly enjoyed by all of us.

There are 1,600 lakes in this, Orange county. Some of them are quite large and all have plenty of fish in them.

It has been our pleasure while here to meet Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Landstreet. Mr. Landstreet is president of the Ft. Gatlin Hotel Company and is interested in many projects here. They were guests of Mrs. Johnson at the dinner and fishing party. On Tuesday Mr. Landstreet invited me to the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. I was again surprised at the consideration given a president of a Chamber of Commerce. I was introduced and tried to make a good speech, and some said I did, but others again said nothing, so I don't know how it took. The Chamber of Commerce here has 4,000 members, with paid-up memberships, and a campaign will be put on by the American City Bureau next week for 5,000 more members. We have 238 members in New Castle, and I feel as if we should have about 1,000 by the time I get back. A Chamber of Commerce is just what its members and its city make it, and those who knock the activities of a Chamber of Commerce should join it and try to make it what they think it should be. I will step aside and let any man in New Castle do better than I have been able to do. Men and women were at today's meeting and all was enthusiasm. I wish the people of New Castle could have been at this meeting, and we have a better city and more opportunities now than any city in the country and it could be made much better by spending about $100,000 a year by advertising our great advantages and railroad facilities in trade journals.

On Wednesday morning Charley Harry, manager of this hotel, took us out into the country to some orange packing houses and we had the pleasure of seeing some mighty fine oranges; also eating all we could. Oranges and grapefruit picked right off the trees are something different than getting the same some time later. We called at Mr. Harry's beautiful home on the way back.

All kinds of garden truck is growing here now. Cucumbers are starting to vine, tomatoes are growing nicely and great fields of lettuce and peppers are being harvested. The soil is very fertile and on some land four crops a year are harvested. Most every person has a few orange and grapefruit trees in his front or back yard and they are very liberal with them. No one need want for fruit here. There are thousands of boxes of fruit lying on the ground in Florida and will never be picked up. Elderberries are in blossom and mulberries are ripe. There are some roses also, but not as many as they usually have here at this time of the year. I think a crate of oranges or grapefruit can be bought cheaper in New Castle than they can be shipped from here for. Getting a crate of fruit from a friend in the South, however, has sort of a sensation connected with it, the sensation usually being the thought of being remembered to the extent of several dollars.

I attended the meeting of the Rotary Club here today, Wednesday, and most of those in attendance were visitors. In fact, the visitors had charge of the entire meeting and it was quite interesting. Men were there from East Liverpool, Youngstown and Washington, Pa., and all parts of the country.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Anderson entertained Mrs. Rentz and myself at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan. All there were New Castle people and we had a fine time. Elegant refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Anderson and daughter Geneva, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Peterson, Mrs. Effie Miles, Samuel Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peterson, and son Bobby, and Miss Kate Morehead and the honor guests, that being us and our better three-fourths.

We are leaving this morning at 10:45 for Jacksonville and will be there for a few days.

Phillips Will Retain Home In Washington, D. C.

By GEORGE H. MANNING
Washington Correspondent of The News

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 7.—Representative and Mrs. Thomas W. Phillips Jr. will not leave Washington permanently, although the congressman's term expired Friday.

Representative Phillips will continue to maintain his home here, and he and the family will remain in Washington at least until June, as the children are in school here.

They will visit their home in Butler, which is one of the finest country homes in western Pennsylvania.

Representative and Mrs. Phillips like Washington life and plan to keep the home they own here and to continue to participate in Washington social life.

The Neglected Point in Sanitation

Keeps bowl lustrous white

In the finest homes no one stoops to scour the closet bowl any more. Yet their bowls are sparkling white, free from all odor, free from stains. Bowlene is used. This amazing powder does all the work itself!

Just a little Bowlene is shaken in the water It goes to work, removing all discoloration while disinfecting and deodorizing. After standing a short time the bowl is flushed. The inner surface is clean and shining white. The entire closet system is made sanitary.

Filibustering By Senators Remains An Unpopular Task

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—A senate filibuster never is popular, for the simple reason that the filibusters always are in a minority. A filibuster is only resorted to in the case of some piece of legislation which will pass if it can be brought to a vote. The filibusters' aim is to tie it up, by talk and dilatory parliamentary tactics, until its too late to vote.

This can't be done early in a session. Neither can it be done at a time when congress needn't adjourn until it gets ready. In either of these situations the filibusters wear out sooner than the majority does.

A filibuster is also impossible in the house of representatives, for the present house rules limit delay.

In the senate, however, even one member can obstruct proceedings as long as he's physically able to keep the floor. Several members, alternating, can put up a pretty long fight.

The Boulder Dam bill, for instance, came up in the senate on Feb. 22. This congress expires, under the constitution, March 4. That meant that delay of 11 days inclusive, and counting Sunday, would kill the bill, so far as this congress is concerned.

Eleven days is a pretty long stretch, and theoretically the senate can stay in session 24 hours a day continuously. It wouldn't be impossible for the majority to do it working in relays.

Still the fight started with three notable filibusters against the bill—Senators Phipps of Colorado, Ashurst of Arizona and King of Utah,. Working in 8-hour shifts it was evident that they could hold the fort for awhile. Besides they were assured of more or less help.

Senator Hi Johnson of California led the majority in the effort to force a vote.

Hiram isn't as promiscuously scrappy as he used to be but once get him started and he's lost none of his old belligerency. From the very outset it was evident that the fur was going to fly.

They began with a session of 30 hours and 30 minutes about six ordinary sessions rolled into one.

United States senators are mostly oldish men. They began to play out and go home. Presently there wasn't a quorum. Senator Moses, presiding ordered Sergeant-at-Arms Barry to arrest the absentees and bring 'em back by force if necessary.

A dignified United States senator yanked out of his beauty sleep and his warm bed and dragged by a truant officer clear down to the other end of Washington doesn't land at the Capitol in any pleasant frame of mind toward those responsible for his humiliatnon. The filibusters got black looks and plenty of 'em.

Is it apparent now why a filibuster gets himself disliked?

A senator talking against time—nothing to say but just drooling along—isn't a lovely sight anyway.

His eyes are heavy, his lips are cracked, his voice is hoarse, he's in the last stages of exhaustion. He isn't addressing anybody—all the other senators are napping out in the cloak room and the presiding officer's asleep in his chair. But he just maunders on.

It may be a fine exhibition of stamina but it isn't a speech.

No senator likes a filibuster when he's the victim of one and yet he hates to see 'em outlawed because he never knows when he may want to conduct one himself.

His right to talk indefinitely is the one thing that makes a senator a bigger man than a member of the lower house.

In the name of efficiency Vice President Dawes demands a senatorial gag rule, like the representatives', but there are mighty few prospects of it yet awhile.

Pittsburgh Y.M.C.A. To Have Wrestlers Here On March 26

Is Second Y To Send Names Of Contestants To Take Part In Tournament

Walter Kirker, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. announced today that he had received a letter from heads of the Downtown Y. M. C. A. of Pittsburgh giving the names of chosen members of their wrestling team who will represent their Association in the Championship Wrestling Tournament of Western Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A.'s to be held here March 26.

The Pittsburgh Y is the second to submit the names of their team members to Kirker, New Brighton having sent their list during the early part of last week.

The following men will be present from Pittsburgh: R. S. Mervin, James McClaren, H. J. Muster, Clifford Hayes, Robert Howard, Charles Brown, William Brown, J. F. Kelly, E. Hall, D. E. Sollberber, Pete Manos, Art Georgaes, and A. Sismondo.

Kirker stated the belief that if all other Associations who join the tournament send in as many names as have New Brighton, who sent nine, and Pittsburgh, there will be a real exhibition of skill and strength here on the 26.

New Castle will have a strong team taking part in the meet and should give some strong opposition to the visiting "neck twisters."

Take Part In St. David's Day Sharon Program

New Castle artists had a most important part in the St. David's Day celebration held in Sharon Saturday evening under the auspices of the Women's Welsh Club of that city and their efforts were received with enthusiasm.

The local people who had a major part in the evening's program were Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Henry Badger, Mrs. William Gordon, George Anthony and Harry Evans.

Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Badger, Mr. Anthony and Mr. Evans gave solo, duet and quartet numbers in great variety and found it necessary in each instance, to give an encore number, so well was their efforts received. They were never heard to a better advantage than on Saturday night, according to the expressions of approval given by the hundreds of people in attendance. Among the numbers given was "The Sea Hath Its Pearls" with which this quartet won at the Youngstown Eisteddfod.

Mrs. William Gordon, as the result of her work as a reader Saturday evening, left a deep impression on the minds of the people of that district. She gave three selections and was compelled to respond with encore numbers.

Among the numbers given by the quartet, was one by Welsh composers, which was received with enthusiasm. The accompanist of the evening was Mrs. D. J. Evans of Youngstown, one of the outstanding musicians of that city.

The affair was held in the First M. E. church of Sharon and there were between four and five hundred people in attendance.

DURAY WINNER IN AUTO RACE

Veteran Racer Wins Race At Culver City; Makes 124.7 Miles An Hour

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 7.—Driving a Miller special at an average speed of 124.7 miles per hour, Leon Duray, veteran racing driver, captured the 250-mile classic over a field of expert drivers at the Culver City bowl yesterday.

Duray's accomplishment constituted a new world's record for cars of 91½ cubic inch piston displacement. It was announced that his record would be re-checked, as some of the drivers disputed the scoring.

Harry Hartz, national champion, finished second; Peter De Paolo, third; Frank Lockhart, fourth; Rarlan Fengler, fifth.

Three cars crashed into the fence during the running of the torrid race. They were driven by De Paolo, George Abell and Cliff Woodbury. None of the men were injured.

Far from being unnerved, De Paolo came back with a sensational burst of speed, and resumed his position in front.

Harry Hartz drove a remarkable race. After losing four laps because of tire trouble, he came back to burn up the track and finished but a half lap behind the winner.

QUARTET WILL GIVE CONCERT IN MERCER

The widely known local quartet consisting of Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Henry Badger, George Anthony and Harry Evans have been engaged to give a concert at Mercer the first week of April. The quartet is becoming widely known and there is an increasing demand for its services.

GIRL SCOUTS

Minnehaha Troop

Minnehaha Troop of the Girl Scouts had their regular weekly meeting in the club rooms of the New Castle Dry Goods Co., on Saturday afternoon at 2:15.

The meeting was opened by the color guard formation, the color bearer being Martha Randles and the color guards, Marian Rose Randall and Helen Book. The girls plead their allegiance to the flag and then recited the scout promises and laws.

Games were played, reviving the knots learned at the meeting and two new knots were learned. Bean bag games were played and then the girls elected Betty Kane and Marian Rose Randall as their patrol leaders and Betty Browne as scribe.

The meeting closed with singing the Girl Scout songs and taps. The first Court of Honor was held after the meeting and plans made for the next meeting.

Death Writes Grim Climax To Festivities

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 7. — Death wrote a grim climax to the end of the pre-lenten festivities in the Little Creek colony here early today when Michael Louvers, 40, was shot and killed. Peter Maltezos, 45-year-old florist, confessed to the slaying, police say.

Lent in the Greek Orthodox church begins today and last night various families in the colony celebrated the close of the Ephiphany season by attending church services, then visiting each other at home where the church rites were concluded. Several of the men gathered at Maltezos' home but when Douvers came he was refused admittance, witnesses said.

Angered, Douvers drew a gun and aimed it at Maltezos. The florist, however, fired first, the bullet striking Douvers in the neck, eyewitnesses told police.

A feud had long existed between the two men, Maltezos will be given a hearing today. Three of his guests, Gus Savalis, Michael Poleti, and his wife, Georgianna Poleti, were held without bail as material witnesses.

VICTOR RETAINS STATE JOB

Mrs. O. H. Hammonds, above, executive secretary to Governor Henry S. Johnston, of Oklahoma, winning a victory in the Oklahoma senate, retains her job. The senate has tabled a resolution, by a vote of 26 to 23, demanding that Governor Johnston dismiss her from office. Mrs. Hammonds is looked upon by her political opponents as the Johnston administration's "Colonel House," because she is adviser to the governor in the affairs of state, and was accused by her opponents of directing political appointments. Inset shows Governor Johnston. Mrs. Hammonds, in an interview, declared: "I am trying to make Henry S. Johnston's administration the best that Oklahoma ever has had. I am attempting to carry out, in a practical way, the idealistic hopes and ambitions that I know Governor Johnston has had in his heart and in his mind. I have become the governor's contact with the people of the state because I have been in touch with the masses ever since I was 12 years old."

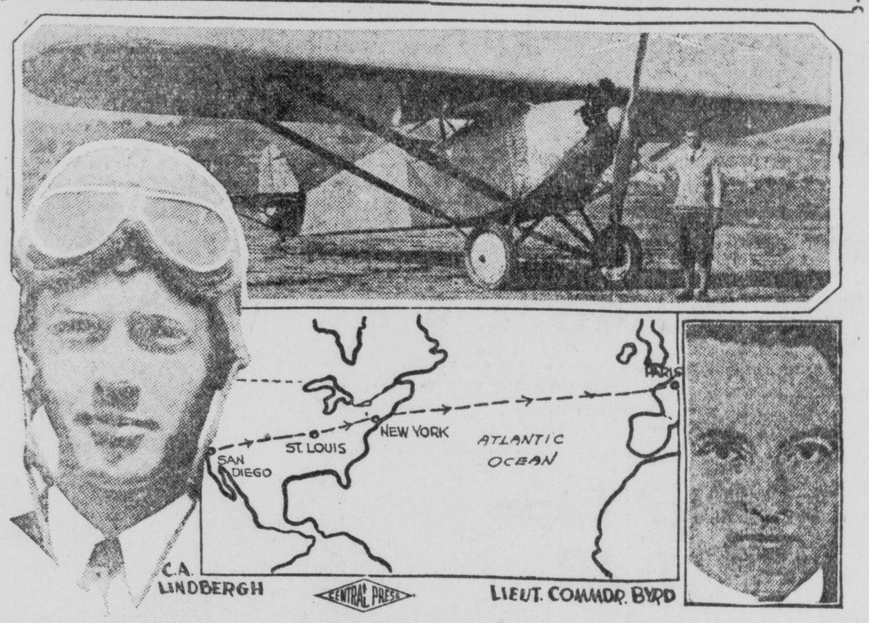
He's feasted on all holidays and anniversaries—particularly on each wedding anniversary.

MAIL PILOT PLANS CALIFORNIA-PARIS FLIGHT



C. A. Lindbergh, famous army and mail pilot, is planning a flight from San Diego, Calif., to Paris, France, the attempt to be made in May. Lindbergh will use a single-motored monoplane of the type shown in the photo above, but with a slightly longer wing spread. He will carry neither landing gear for the ocean, nor radio sending set. From New York to Paris he will compete for the $25,000 prize offered by Raymond Orteig, New York sportsman, for the first aviator to make the New York-Paris hop. Inset to left is of Lindbergh. The map shows his proposed route. To the right is Lieutenant Commander Richard E. Byrd, of Polar flight fame, who, also has announced his intention of entering the trans-atlantic race.

BOY DARES DEATH TO SAVE PAL

Edward Irby, 9, right, is the center of hero worship in Atlanta, Ga. He is shown with his chum, Bert Lockwood, a few hours after Edward plunged into a 28-foot pool at the Atlanta waterworks and rescued his younger pal from death. Twice the swirling waters broke Edward's clutch on the little fellow and twice he dared death to rescue Bert. Edward now is the object of a move by citizens to secure a Carnegie medal for his display of heroism.

Although she recently married a wealthy guest of "her" hotel, a dentist, Mrs. F. W. Frey, formerly Miss Adele Bohle, still retains her post as housekeeper of the Hollenden, Cleveland. "A life of leisure doesn't appeal to me," says Mrs. Frey," I couldn't give up my work which is so very fascinating." Mrs. Frey who came here from Germany three-and-a-half years ago says she always has made it a rule never to mingle socially with hotel guests, but Dr. Frey won her in spite of this aloofness.

PROBING DEATH OF BABIES

Six newborn babies have died at Columbus Hospital, Chicago, and one other has been critically ill, due to poison, thought to have been boric acid, being administered to them as drinking water, by mistake. In all, ten babies were given the wrong solution, testimony before a coroner's jury has disclosed. The photo shows Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, Chicago health commissioner, questioning Margaret Cuff, Irene Schwartz, and Eileen Callahan, nurses at the hospital. On the floor are bottles of the deadly acid. Bodies of four babies, buried without post-mortem examination, have been exhumed, by order of Coroner Oscar Wolff, who has been trying to fix responsibility.

Epworth Church Secures Chorister For Large Choir

W. R. Short who has recently come to this city to assume the position as merchandise buyer with the New Castle Dry Goods Co. has been secured as leader of the chorus choir of Epworth M. E. church.

The choir was organized during the special evangelistic services which have been in progress during the last two weeks by Sidney Carlson who was in charge of the music during the meetings.

Mr. Short is a gifted musician and singer. He has led large choruses and orchestras in London, Ontario and other places in Canada and in Buffalo, N. Y. The local congregation feel that they have been very fortunate in obtaining such an able leader.

For a number of years the special music has been under the direction of a quartet.

City Stenographer Given Pay Increase

Placed On Regular Salary At Office Of City Solicitor White

Council today increased the salary of Miss Mary McIntyre, stenographer to the city solicitor from $20 a week to $100 a month. The resolution which received favorable passage was urged by Solicitor White.

The position being filled by Miss McIntyre is a very important post and her duties are arduous. In fact of the stenographic positions in city hall, her job is the most important. She must have all of the legal information desired at her fingertips at all times.

When she was appointed as an assistant stenographer for the purpose of learning the duties of the office she was started at a lower rate and now that she has been made the regular appointee Solicitor White believes the increase is justifiable.

Women now have equal rights plus the deference bestowed upon them by the men.

Westinghouse To Use Newspapers For Advertising

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 7. — The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, multi-million dollar electrical appliances manufacturing concern, today stands definitely committed to a policy of carrying on its gigantic advertising campaigns almost exclusively through the medium of daily newspapers.

The new policy, which is to go into effect April 1, according to J. C. McQuiston, publicity manager, was adopted as the result of a long survey, in which it was determined that daily newspapers completely cover both local and national fields, being sufficient to adequately advertise every product of the Westinghouse concern from minor appliances to huge electric locomotives.

Through the medium of the newspaper, it was determined, a national and local system of publicity could be carried out at the same time.

Smile Nicely

New way restores "off-color" teeth to clearness quickly

DON'T think your teeth are naturally off-color and dull. You can restore them to amazing whiteness in a new way dentists advise.

Run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel a film. A slippery coating that covers them, hides their color and invites tooth and gum troubles. Ordinary pastes and dentifrices won't successfully remove it.

That is why, in old days, so many smiles were ruined by ugly teeth and toneless gums. Now, thanks to modern science, there is a way to combat that film.

Just obtain a tube of the dentifrice called Pepsodent at your druggist's. Clear off that film tonight; clear white teeth are beautiful. Note then the amazing difference in your smile.

You'll be thankful for the suggestion. For thus you can change your whole appearance.

Chariot Race Is Ben Hur Feature

MAY McAVOY

"Ben-Hur," with its magnificent chariot race pictured in a death-defying contest on a vast Circus area—the knightly Ramon Novarro and the wicked Francis X. Bushman as the opposing heroes—comes to the Scottish Rite Auditorium on Friday and Saturday March 11th and 12th for a special engagement.

You see forty-eight horses—twelve teams—start abreast in their mad dash over the seven laps of the Antioch race-course, and you cannot forbear a cheer as Ben-Hur wrecks Messala and forges to the front. Roman and Pirate navies contend in realistic death-grapples on the Mediterranean. The towers and turrets of Zion rise anew. The beautiful love story of Esther and Ben-Hur, a contemporary of the Saviour, dominates the grand spectacle which is characterized by a fine reverence in the sacred part of the portrayals.

Among the leading actors are Ramon Novarro in the tile role; Francis X. Bushman as Messala; May McAvoy as Esther, Betty Bronson as the Madonna, Carmel Myers as Iras; Frank J. Currier, Mitchell Lewis, Nigel de Brulier, Claire McDowell, Kathleen Key, with no less than 150,000 persons in the "support."

At one time the cowcatcher specialized in cows. Now it carries automobiles as a side line.

Grandmother Knew

there was nothing so good for congestion and colds as mustard. But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered.

Musterole gives the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Gently rub it in. See how quickly the pain disappears.

Try Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

McBRIDE POST MEETS TONIGHT

New Quarters For Organization Are Opened On Neshannock Avenue

Corporal Harry L. McBride Post No. 522, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet this evening in its new quarters and club rooms at 329 Neshannock avenue. There will be an initiation and a lunch and all ex-service men, who saw service overseas, are invited to be present.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars is made up of ex-service men, who saw service in a foreign land or on sea, in any of the wars of the United States. It was organized in 1899 for foreign service veterans of all wars and of all services, including the army, navy, and marines.

McBride Post has exceptionally comfortable quarters on Neshannock avenue, and any ex-service man who saw service in foreign lands or on sea, is invited to make use of the club rooms of the organization.

EXCEPTIONS TAKEN TO HOLESKO VERDICT

Motion for judgment, notwithstanding the verdict, was made by the defendants this morning in the case of Louis Holesko by his father, John Holesko, against Joseph and Morris Moreski. This was a case in which Louis Holesko was awarded a verdict of $2,500 against the defendants, the case being on trial for a week.

Defendants do not want to pay the $2,500.

Judge Hildebrand directed that the notes of testimony, together with the charge of the court, be written out in longhand, when arguments will take place on the motion.

A Bad Liver Was Causing This Penna. Man Lots Of Trouble

Baker Was Becoming Worse All The Time. Tells How Dreco Made Him Well.

S. P. Thorp, the Dreco man, will gladly explain the merits of Dreco to all callers at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store. Free samples given.

"I took fourteen different kinds of medicines before I started on Dreco but my condition was becoming worse all the time," said Mr. Riley E. Davy, 2530 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa., in a recent written statement.

"An attack of flu several months ago started me on the downward path and I just couldn't regain my lost health or strength. I had no appetite at all, my sleep was restless and I was as tired in the morning as at night. I always felt sluggish and here of late could hardly speak civilly to anyone. I suffered from severe headaches, had a coated tongue and a bad taste in my mouth and was always constipated.

"One day the foreman at the Ward Baking Co., where I work suggested that I try Dreco so I bought some. This wonderful medicine went right to the root of my troubles and now I feel fine all the time. The headaches have vanished, my bowels are regular, I sleep soundly at night and have regained all my old time energy and strength. I can sincerely recommend Dreco to everyone."

Dreco is composed of the juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and leaves which act on the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels and purify the blood. It relieves constipation, prevents gas forming in the stomach, increases the appetite, insures sound, refreshing sleep, banishes catarrh of the head and takes the pain out of rheumatic joints.

Mr. S. P. Thorp, the well-known Expert from the Dreco Laboratories now at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store, is telling scores of people every day how to take Dreco for best results. Go to see him. His advice is free.

Six-Hour Siege Ends In Death Of Crazed Man

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Mar. 7. — Trapped in his home at Beaversdale, near here by state police after he shot one man to death and wounded three others, one perhaps fatally while in a maniacal rage, Sam Bruno, 50, was killed by a bullet fired by one of his captors after a six hour siege late last night.

Victims of Bruno's rampage were Max Miller, 35, killed, John Libertine, 34, who today was reported dying, Oscar Melhorne, 31, and Contsable Howard Plummer, all of Beaversdale.

Bruno, who, police believe, was mentally unbalanced, shot Miller to death, attacked the three others with a revolver, and fled to his home, where state police bombarded his door for six hours. Finally two officers forced the door open, and found Bruno shot through the heart, apparently by a bullet which pierced the door.

Urges Effort To Check Animal Killing By Cars

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 7. —Because thousands of animals, birds and domestic fowl are sacrificed yearly on the streets and highways of America, every motorist should give his full cooperation to the various humane movements designed to reduce these losses.

This appeal is made in a statement from national headquarters of the American Automobile Association asking its 850 member clubs scattered throughout the country to enlist their vast membership in a continuing campaign to protect animal and bird life.

Dogs, cats, rabbits, squirrels, chickens and birds are the victims of tens of thousands of highway mishaps every spring and summer, the national motoring organizations' statement declares, and a great majority of the animals may be spared if every motorist will take it upon himself to "give them a chance".

"While there are, of course, no figures available on the total number killed, anyone who has done any touring can look back into his own experience and find himself able to estimate that the aggregate losses are amazingly large," says Thomas P. Henry, president of the A. A. A., in the organization's appeal. "Undoubtedly many of these killings are unavoidable. Many, however, are needless and could have been prevented if the motorist had been willing to make the necessary concession to the animal's inability to act with reason."

New Castle And Sharon Drivers Lose Licenses

(International News Service)

HARRISURG, Pa., March 7.—The department of highways today announced that 36 additional names have been added to the list of those who have had their drivers' licenses revoked and 11 more will not be able to obtain one for a year.

There were 17 revocations for intoxication and five for reckless driving. Eight of the blacklistings were caused by intoxication.

Revocations for intoxication included B. F. Querry, Lewistown, and Hugh Dixon, Bradford.

Reckless driving revocations include Joseph Banister, Erie, and John Sturdy, Sharon.

Other revocations and the causes include Horace Hayberger, New Castle, transporting liquor; William Lyons, Lebanon, and Louis Canton, Uniontown, both on the charge of habitual violators; John Mitchell and Joseph Shray, both of Bethlehem, for misstatement of facts.

About 17 Inches Of Snow This Year

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 7.—The snowfall in this section since January 1 is reported at 16.6 inches in comparison with the fall during the first three months of 1926 amounting to 32 inches.

During January this year only 2.4 inches fell compared to 7.3 inches during 1926. February, 1926, was the banner month, having a fall of 23.9 inches corresponding with 14.2 inches this year.

During the present month little if any fall has been recorded while March, 1926, showed a fall of .8 of an inch.

YORK COUNCIL SESSION OPENS WITH PRAYER

(International News Service)

YORK, Pa., March 7.—York's city council and the York County Bee Keepers' Association are the only two secular organizations in York county, it appears, which open their meetings with prayer.

Until recently the bee keepers' organization stood alone in the custom of asking divine guidance over its meetings. But recently legislation by the city council provided for the presence of a minister of the gospel to ask the invocation at the beginning of each regular session.

The custom of opening the council meetings with prayer is now being observed regularly. Invitations are extended to the ministers of the city to deliver the invocation at the council meetings by the superintendent of the department of public safety.

Wright Estate Helps 50 College Students

MERCER, March 7. — Worthy young men and women attending college but in need of assistance have been added to the list of those who are being assisted from the income of the estate of the late senator G. W. Wright until the total reaches over 50, states R. C. Kerr today, who is the executor of the estate and one of three administrators of this fund that approximates half a million set aside for this purpose.

Under the terms of the will left by the deceased only "worthy young men and women" were to be benefitted. With Mr. Kerr in the administration of this fund is associated Judge J. A. McLaughry of Mercer and Alexander Wright of New Castle. With the opening of the fall term in 1926, 43 young men and women had been approved for support by the trio of trustees and started to college. Those added are boys and girls who have found themselves in need of assistance during the year. One of this number is a young lady, the daughter of a minister, whose lifetime savings were swept away in the breaking of a bank. Another is a youth who is in his final semester of a four-year college course. It had been his intent to go the whole way on his "own", but circumstances made help necessary. To date the boy had put himself through by work and taken honor grades in his classes.

The files of the administrators of this fund are replete with such tales of heroism.

When proper proof is produced of such sacrifices there is no hold-up on the part of the board in giving immediate relief.

It is stated by Mr. Kerr that the grades of their charges at the end of the first semester were very satisfactory.

Ingrown Nail

Turns Right Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

Slayer Of Two Kills Self When Found In Refuge By Posses

MADISON, Wis., Mar. 7.—After fatally shooting Allen Henderson, 55, and his son, Walter, 20, Negro chicken farmers near here, Sunday, Harvey Nelson, 35, shot and killed himself early today when found by sheriff's forces and the police in a garage not far from the scene of the slaying.

Nelson calmly watched the doors of the garage opened and, as he sat in the driver's seat of an automobile, a revolver in each hand, and a sawed-off shotgun across his lap, declared he would not shoot any member of the posse. He then raised one of the revolvers to his temple and fired.

Woman Is Killed In Auto Crash

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 7.—Mrs. Cora Cook, 62 of Johnson, O., died in St. Elizabeth's hospital last night of injuries received at noon when the automibile in which she was riding collided with another.

Her niece Miss Margaret Lomaine who was driving is in the hospital in a serious condition.

FATHER BACKING AUTO ON TO ROAD CRUSHES SMALL SON TO DEATH

LOUISVILLE, March 7.—Leslie Penrose, a Pullman company electrician, crushed his three-year-old son Leroy Penrose to death Sunday when he backed his automobile over the child's body.

The Penrose family were leaving church and the boy broke away from his mother to run to his father's car. As the baby passed behind the automobile, Penrose, unconscious of his approach, backed the machine into the road. The rear wheel of the car passed over the child's body.

THIN PEOPLE NEED THIS HELP

Excessively thin people are really not well. Nature makes provisions for a fair degree of plumpness in all her creatures, and its absence is neither healthful nor beautiful.

Many people fail to get full value from the food they eat simply because digestion isn't right. One of the commonest causes of imperfect digestion is a catarrhal trouble. The stomach is lined with the same membrane that covers the throat and nose, and it is subject to the same catarrh.

Beauty Is Restored

Then digestion is interfered with, and food fails to yield its full value in body building materials. Sometimes sour stomach is frequent, usually constipation is present.

This condition often brings about extreme thinness, and the cause is not known to the victim. World's Tonic, the great catarrh remedy, usually conquers such cases quickly.

A pleasing roundness succeeds the angles, the figure is developed, the complexion clears of its sallowness, and the eyes sparkle with health. Thousands know of the value of this great medicine. You may derive wonderful benefits from its use. World's Tonic is for sale at McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Paisley's, Smith's and all good druggists.

"I was so thin everybody joked about it, and I was ashamed myself. All I ate did not seem to help me. My druggist told me about World's Tonic. I took it and gained 20 pounds in four months. More than that, it made me feel so strong and well that I have forgotten how to worry.

EBELING ELECTRIC

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c, 30c and 60c.

"'Cause that's the only time we have it!" replied the truthful lad.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions:

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting and operations sometimes fail?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by McKee's Kut Rate Store and Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, quick and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. Don't delay. Try HEM-ROID today. It will do the same for you.

Scioto Street Home Damaged

Blaze Does Approximately $1,000 Damage On Saturday Afternoon

Property of Nathan Rabinovitz, 1104-1104 1-2 Scioto street, was damaged by fire Saturday evening shortly after 6 o'clock to the extent of approximately $1,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

The property is a double house and occupied by six families and the fire is believed to have originated from an oil stove in the bathroom of the second floor apartment at 1104 1-2 occupied by Clarence Stanton.

Wainscoting of the bathroom ignited and the flames went up the wall to the ceiling and under the roof of the attic of the building, making their way to the roof of the building in which a couple of holes were burned.

Occupants of the building removed most of their household effects with the result that little damage was done other than to the building.

When the first alarm sounded from box 53, No. 5 and 1 hose companies and the assistant chief started for the scene. While the companies were still enroute some person turned in a second alarm calling additional, and as it happened, unneeded companies to the scene.

The firemen had the fire under control shortly after arriving and were not detained a great length of time at the place.

Occupants of 1104 are J. H. Moore, Mary Bardash, John Suach and Dick Jordan while the occupants of 1104 1-2 are Clarence Stanton and William King.

Firemen Called Sunday Afternoon

Firemen were called to the Terminal drug store in the Fisher building, formerly the Bleakley block, corner of Washington and South Jefferson street, Sunday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock by an alarm from box 25.

An awning at the entrance of the drug store on South Jefferson street was on fire evidently set on fire by a cigaret or cigar thrown from above. It was destroyed and the balcony or window projecting out over the entrance was also badly scorched. The actual blaze had been put out on the arrival of the firemen by occupants of the second floor apartment of the building by throwing small quantities of water on it.

If Your Supper Lays Like Lead

And you Spend the Night Fighting Hobgoblins

Try a little diapepsin. Supper dances, fancy drinks, too much tobacco, coffee and highly seasoned dishes play havoc with the stomach. Diapepsin takes the worst sort of combination of foods, settles them, absorbs the gassy, sour heartburn and you go peacefully to sleep without a struggle.

It is embarrassing to have to refuse eating in company. But if you are a dyspeptic you may safely take a chance with any mixture and avoid suffering by the rule of one or two diapepsins after eating. You'll get more out of life, more pleasure, more health, more strength and endurance.

Steady digestion and freedom from acid-dyspepsia is guaranteed any stomach by the use of diapepsin after eating.

Get a 60 cent package of Pape's Diapepsin at any drug store. You'll recommend it.

Italians Gamble On Death "Hunch" Make Big Game

MARSALA, Silicy March 7.—The suicide of a half-witted lad, called Sebastiano Armato has brought many a nest egg to the poor of this city. Throwing himself into the street from the terrace of his home Sebastiano was killed on the spot. The gamblers who hope every Saturday to win money in the State Lottery "played' on the poor lad's misfortune, choosing No. 11 for terrace, 20 for his injuries and 22 for the word "mad." All the numbers were winning numbers last Saturday at Palermo and the state lottery agencies were besieged by large crowds of winners.

The state lottery is such an established institution in Italy that every agent keeps a book which is the gamblers' guide; for each aspect of and event in human life has its own number and often a dream will guide a gambler to put together the happy combination of three or four numbers which happen to win. More often however the state does.

Silver Cup For Inter-Class Winners

MERCER, Pa., March 7.—A handsome silver loving cup has been offered by the Mercer Chamber of Commerce as a trophy for the class basketball team of Mercer high that wins the post-season series now being arranged. The final game of the last half of the season is carded for next Monday evening, when the Juniors and Sophomores and Freshmen and Seniors play. The Freshmen and Juniors are tied now for first place.

It is likely that these two teams will play off the series for the cup as the two leaders. The teams will play three games. They will not take place, however, until after the playing of the high school tournament at Grove City, which starts Wednesday evening. It is the intention of the Chamber of Commerce to make this event a permanent thing with the interclass teams. There is no doubt that as a result of this league this year more players have been developed than for many years previous. Enough youngsters are now being developed to provide large squads in the future, badly needed for varsity use.

The electric button is the best thing yet invented. The alarm clock is the worst.

Weak, Puny Children Get Better Quickly

Right Way To Put On Good Flesh And Make Them Grow Up Streng and Vigerous.

Don't take any chances when your frail child is underweight and needs the help of vitalizing vitamines.

Go right to any druggist and get a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. You can get 60 tablets for 60 cents and as they are sugar coated children like to take them.

There's plenty of vitamines in McCoy's—just the kind needed to bring strength and health to your child and give him the happy start in life that is his privilege.

Just give him McCoy's for 30 days Mother, instead of the nasty tasting, stomach upsetting Cod Liver Oil and then if you are not happy over the good results get your money back.

AUTO ACCIDENTS ARE REPORTED

Minor Mishaps Occur On Streets Of City Over Week End

Dean M. Staley, 428 East Meyer avenue, reported to the police Saturday that while driving north on Neshannock avenue, at an alley by St. John's Lutheran church, a truck driven by Grant Smith, without giving a signal, made a turn into the alley and the Staley machine hit it. A boy on the runningboard of the truck was injured.

Earl Powell of East New Castle, R. D. No. 6, reported Saturday that he was going south on Moravia street at the railroad crossing at Division and Moravia streets, and was about to turn into Division street, when a machine going north on Moravia street ran into and damaged his machine. He did not secure the number of the other machine.

Elmer Welker of R. D. No. 2 reported Sunday that he was driving east on Washington street at Shenango street when a man in a car, the number of which he did not secure, who was driving south on Shenango street, ran into and slightly damaged his machine.

COP "LURES" CATS

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—After 10 cats had collected about Policeman Merrigan, directing traffic at Twenty-ninth street and Allegheny avenue, he thought it about time to investigate the reason for his popularity. He discovered that someone had rubbed catnip on the base of the traffic box. A bit of gasoline from a passing motorist did the trick and the cats disappeared.

Send it to a Master DYER AND CLEANER — National Association Dyers and Cleaners

Your Master Cleaned Clothes
DRIED BY AIR

SMITH'S MASTER DYERS and CLEANER announce the installation and operation of the latest perfected natural air drying process for drying clothes after cleaning.

The advantage of this new system is that it approximates as closely as possible the conditions and results of natural drying in the open air. By the latest scientific method immense quantities of mild warm air is passed through your clothes completely drying and deodorizing them. The new method is a positive acting non-circulative system, all gas laden air is discharged continuously into the outside atmosphere.

Natural warm air is recognized as the best dryer and deodorizer known—therefore the Smith Dry by air process is correct in principle—it's nature's own way.

Under the old system of high temperature drying with air that was raised to high degrees clothing was scorched; the nap burned off and the natural oils that give life to woolens, silks, cottons and various other fabrics are baked out.

CONTINUOUS FLOW SYSTEM OF DRY CLEANING

SMITH'S MASTER DYERS and CLEANER also have been using for many months the continuous flow system of dry cleaning. By means of a continuously flowing stream of chemically purified cleaning solvent the dirt and soil is washed away from your clothes. The solvent does not re-circulate until after it is purified.

Before the continuous flow system was invented the cleaning solvent was used over and over again the soil and dirt remaining until the solvent would become impure and sour. Not only were the clothes not cleaned under this method but the soured solvent would give an odor to the clothes that never could be eradicated.

Now by means of the continuous flow system your clothes are cleaned with chemically pure solvent and dried by nature's own-way—pure dry air and completely deodorized.

SMITH'S MASTER DYERS and CLEANERS are the only dry cleaners in Lawrence county, using these two latest methods.

League Council Opens Sessions

Foreign Minister Herr Stresemann Of Germany Presides

(International News Service)

GENEVA, March 7.—Foreign Minister Herr Stresemann of Germany, for the first time since Germany entered the League of Nations, occupied the presidential chair at today's opening session of the league council, the 44th session of the council.

While none of the more than 20 questions on the agenda was considered of international importance, Geneva attaches the greatest importance to the chairmanship at this session because the agenda includes the Saar basin and Upper Silesian issues.

Although small in itself the Upper Silesian issue—Poland claims right of admittance for Polish children to German schools—is expected to develop into a rolling up of all the German-Polish controversies.

Equally, the Saar issue—embodying the German protest against the maintainence of French troops in the Saar territory—probably will result in Franco-German controversy.

Because of these issues the greatest significance was attached to the conference held by three foreign ministers—Stresemann, Briand of France and Zaleski of Poland—with a view to reaching an agreement prior to the opening of the session itself.

Suspicious!

The veteran catcher waddled out to the box for a conference with the wild recruit. "See here, bimboo," he said, "you pitch a few more bad ones and Landis will be wanting to look over your mail."

Will Broadcast Pittsburgh Game

WKBU To Present New Castle High Game Friday Evening

It is announced today that through the courtesy of the Rick-Overland company the basketball fans of New Castle and surrounding territory who are unable to make the trip to Pittsburgh for the W. P. I. A. L. elimination game, will have the opportunity of "listening in" on the game broadcast Friday night March 11, from the Pitt Stadium.

Arrangements for the broadcast of the floor game that will take place Friday night have been made, it is announced. The broadcast was made possible through an A. T. & T. hook-up from the Pitt Stadium direct to Station WKBU in this city. The local station will pick up the report of the game and it will be transmitted from here. A direct connection from the Pitt Stadium to the radio listeners has been made.

Charles "Bugs" Walther, assistant sports editor of the News will present the game in the capacity of announcer.

The broadcasting will start at 8 o'clock and will continue until possibly 9:30 o'clock.

New Castle High will either play Duquesne, or Vandergrift depending on the outcome of the game scheduled for Tuesday night.

New Cafe-Coach On Penna. Trains

A new cafe-coach has just been initiated on the Pennsylvania Railroad for use between Pittsburgh and Erie.

The new car consists of a kitchen and dining room to accommodate 16 persons. This occupies one-half of the room of the new steel coach, the other half being fitted out for use of coach passengers, just like a regular day-coach passenger car. There has not been enough demand to place a full dining car on the trains between Pittsburgh and Erie but this combination car will fill a great need of passengers traveling over this route.

The car is very similar to a regular diner with the exception that it has only four tables and that the front half of the coach is occupied by seats for regular day-coach passengers. Either pullman or coach passengers may have advantage of these new diners.

Prof. Ball Back From Educational Meeting In Texas

Heard Chorus Of 600 Negro Children Led By Daughter Of Booker T. Washington

Assistant County Superintendent of Schools C. F. Ball returned yesterday from Dallas, Tex., where he attended the national education convention as delegate from the teachers' association of Lawrence county. Prof. Ball reports a wonderful convention. Over 15,000 educators from all over the United States were in attendance.

One of the striking features of the convention was a chorus composed of 600 colored children from the colored schools of Dallas. They were all dressed in white and sang southern melodies. They were led by a daughter of the late Booker T. Washington, who is supervisor of music in the colored schools of Dallas.

Another feature was a band composed of 268 pieces. Members of the band came from every state in the union.

Prof. Ball was pleased with Dallas, a city of 250,000 population.

Vegetation in the vicinity of Dallas is well advanced, peach, pear and other fruit trees being in bloom.

Three Injured In Accident At 6-Day Bike Race

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, March 7.—As the result of the worst six day bike-racing accident in 16 years Mrs. Frank D. Walker a spectator and two riders were nursing severe injuries today. The accident occurred when Emile Rohrback of France, and Edward Raffo, of Jersey City, collided while rounding a turn at Madison Square Garden last night.

Rohrback's bike, out of control crashed into an iron railing. Rohrback and his bicycle were catapulated over the railing and into the box where Mrs. Walker sat with her husband, vice president of an investment company here.

The handlebars of the bicycle inflicted a nasty wound on Mrs. Walker's forehead and she was thrown to the floor. Rohrback was knocked unconscious. Raffo was less seriously hurt.

Good Progress On Church Building In East Side District

Exterior Of Third U. P. Church, East Washington Street, Nearly Complete

Excellent progress is being made in the erection of the fine new Third United Presbyterian church on the East Side. The edifice is now almost complete on the exterior and gives the impression of a large and most modern church edifice.

Windows are not in the building yet and the entrances are now completed but in general the exterior appearance of the building can be noted.

The church will probably be ready for use in the fall according to the pastor Rev. S. B. Copeland.

Stork Passes Ohio Village By For Four Years; Deaths Few

CADIZ, O., March 7.—Deersville Harrison county has not been visited by the stork for four years or needed an undertaker for 15 months and it is far from being a deserted ruin. It is small compared with its importance in pre-railroad days but it has its own mayor and other municipal officials.

At one time Deersville had a population of 300. That was when it was a wool buying center. Today its population is 96. Of this 55 are past the age of 60. Only 14 are of school age although the town has grade and high schools the latter getting most of its pupils from the surrounding country. There are 17 widowers, 10 widows, eight bachelors and five spinisters. The town has two churches, a physician, a grocery and a blacksmith shop. Deersville was laid out in 1815.

In one month the club will be entertained at the home of Miss Nellie Cauffield on N. Liberty street.

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all know drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Sabbath Observance Convention Will Be Held On Tuesday

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 7.—Twenty Pennsylvania Sabbatarian organizations will be represented at a convention to be held here on Tuesday, March 8, in the interests of Sabbath observance.

Afternoon and evening meetings will be held and at noon there will be a luncheon to which state officials and members of the legislature will be invited. A large delegation will come from Philadelphia.

The convention is being sponsored by the Lord's Alliance of Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia Sabbath Association, the Harrisburg Ministerial Association and other organizations throughout the state.

Among the speakers will be Federal judge Albert W. Johnson, Secretary of Agriculture Charles G. Jordan, State Secretary of Welfare E. S. H. McCauley, former Deputy Attorney General John Robert Jones, Director of Public Safety of Philadelphia George W. Elliott, Bishop John F. Berry, Bishop James H. Darling, Thomas A. McElwee, representative of the United National Association of Postoffice Clerks.

Sabbath observance legislation and other questions will be discussed at the afternoon meeting. The evening session will be in the form of a public mass meeting.

Pay By Check To Foil Bandits

(International News Service)

COAL RUN, Pa., Marh 7.—The Dodson Coal company has started paying its miners at the Glen Brook colliery here by check instead of in cash.

Although the move was made to foil bandits who have specialized in payroll robberies it is also expected to receive more mutual satisfaction than the cash paying. It is said the miners are as well pleased as the official heads of the company. Heretofore miners have been accosted by mendicants and canvassers and much of their money corralled before they had time to go to the bank.

AUTO SMASH KILLS ONE, INJURES TWO ON SLIPPERY ROAD

FRANKLIN, Pa., March 7.—Their automobile striking a culvert on the Meadville-Franklin road, a mile south of Cochranton, Sunday afternoon, Elmer Shuffstall, 22, of this city, was killed and his brother William, 20, seriously injured. Arthur Boughner, 23, it is feared, is suffering from concussion of the brain.

Boughner and William Shuffstall were hurried to the Franklin hospital and their condition is critical.

MAN BUYS CASKET, THEN KILLS SELF

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Mar. 7.—After contracting with a local undertaking firm to bury him for 150, stipulating that his casket was not to be opened, requesting that the digger of his grave be paid 25, leaving a note to his wife, one to the sheriff and another to the public, Arthur Muray, 55, farmer and native of Monongalia county, committed suicide at his home near Ellislow, Saturday afternoon by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. Despondency and grief over estrangement from his wife was given as the motive behind the suicide.

Men strive for revenge; then when they get it find there is nothing they can do with it.

Here And There Over The State

(International News Service)

FREELAND, Pa., March 7.—Merchants here are standing pat on their refusal to contribute to church and lodge funds and to programs.

They formed an association which required a $50 deposit as an evidence of good faith and the merchants are sticking to their agreement. The only time they dare give is when they are members of the lodge or church.

WYOMING, Pa., March 7.—Wyoming is in the throes of a reform wave and bids fair to rival Irvington, N. J., as the spotless town.

The burgess has called in the police and has ordered the arrest of all business men who do not close Saturday midnight until Monday morning.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 7.—Henry Ford gets more credit than Billy Sunday for he has cleaned up Hazleton, something that is believed Billy Sunday could not do.

Ford used his new snow cleaner, in the hands of demonstrators and the big snow drifts from two blizzards, 24 hours apart have vanished. This city has bought one of the machines, paving $3,000 for it.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 7.—The raising of money to entertain the state convention of firemen at this city in October is a problem which the local fire companies are wrestling with.

They have agreed to ban carnivals and house to house solicitation seems to be the plan that will be adopted.

SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET ON MONDAY

'Clean' hands may spread disease

For greater safety, use this germ-removing toilet soap

"EVEN if your hands look clean they may be covered with germs," says the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Unseen germs are everywhere — on countless things you touch each day—doorknobs, telephones, money, books.

The Life Extension Institute lists 27 germ diseases hands may spread—ranging from colds and grippe to diphtheria. How guilty you would feel, should any of these diseases reach your family through food your hands prepared!

To safeguard health, use Lifebuoy, the purifying toilet soap that removes germs, as well as dirt. Purify your hands whenever you wash.

Millions find Lifebuoy a joy to use—mild, refreshing, fine for complexions. Then, too, its antiseptic lather keeps away body odor—keeps you fresh always.

Note Lifebuoy's clean hygienic scent—proof of its greater protection. See how quickly it evaporates after rinsing. Lifebuoy is orange-red—the color of its pure palm-fruit oils. Get Lifebuoy today.

Paris Is Ready For 30,000 Legionnaires At September Meet

By WILLIAM P. CARNEY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, March 7.—While seasoned executives of tourist agencies wag their heads discouragingly and declare solemnly that "it can't be done," the American Legion's special France convention committee proceeds, all unperturbed, with its preparations for housing 30,000 delegates to the great meeting in Paris next September.

Edwin Thorn, director of the gigantic task of securing hotel and steamship reservations for the 30,000, announces cheerfully that hotel rooms for 26,000 already are contracted for. The systemized work of getting these reservations involves the assignment of individual delegates—by name—to the countless small hostelries of the French capital. The proprietors of these little hotels pledge their rooms to the American Legion in a binding contract which Thorn gives them to sign.

When Thorn took hold of his job several months ago, he went first to the American Express company and to Thomas Cook & Son for help. An official of the American Express company pointed out that not half of 30,000 convention delegates have ever previously been assembled at one time in Paris.

"What folly to think that you could find hotel accommodations in Paris for that number," exclaimed the expert on handling tourist throngs. "If 30,000 delegates really come over, certainly you will have to put 20,000 in tents in the Bois de Boulogne."

Thorn's reception at Thomas Cook & Son was no more heartening. He was told there that in 1925—a banner tourist year—all offices of that big company throughout the world made travel arrangements for a total of 24,000 clients. The legion's belief that 30,000 veterans might be handled as tourists, instead as an army contingent, was kindly rejected as an utter impossibility.

As a consolation to Thorn, however, officials of this firm smilingpredicted that not more than 12,000 delegates of the host expected would actually land at French ports next fall.

Undaunted, Thorn acted fridependently, organizing his own plan for obtaining hotel and steamship reservations. He convinced officials of Exprinter, another large tourist agency, that arrangements had to be made for conducting not 12,000 or 15,000, but a full 30,000 delegates to the battlefields in sightseeing autobusses.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

CROCODILE!

Petares' eyes were not quite as sharp as the eyes of the lean dog, so it was fully a moment longer before he saw things as they really were. But when he did see the same thing the lean day saw, the boy's heart leaped into his mouth in his fear for the runaway kid.

"Little goat, little goat, hear me and heed! Step not a toot upon yonder log, for it is no log, but a cruel crocodile!"

The little goat heard plainly enough, for he stopped short in his tracks and trembled; Petares could have sworn it.

"Crocodile!" bleated he. "Oh, are you certain?" Crocodile was a word to strike terror into even the stoutest hearts of those who lived by the River Nile.

Steadily the little goat gazed at that thing in the water. The waters lapped gently against its sides and the sound as of some one drinking water made the kid very thirsty, caused him to long to splash in the ripples more than before. The thing was brown, just like a log. And covered with bumpy knots, just like a log! And the thing lay like a log in the water—made no move nor sound. Surely nothing that lived and breathed could float so still! The longer he looked the more certain was the little goat that he was right. Still, if it should happen to be a crocodile! Well, his mistake would cost him dear!

Doubtfully the little goat glanced over his shoulder. Were those two who hailed him truly wiser than he? What? The boy and the dog had left their place upon the bank of the river, were running straight toward him. In a flash he made up his mind.

AND THE THING LAY LIKE A LOG IN THE WATER. . . MADE NO MOVE NOR SOUND

"Aaaaa! You two have made a trap to catch me! I see it all now! You think to take me captive back home with you. 'Tis no crocodile at all, as well you know, but a harmless log, and I'm going to leap upon it and with it float down the river and away from you who have made mock of me!"

Pell mell the little goat made for the brown thing in the water of the river.

BLIND, BUT NOT SIGHTLESS

The human body is subject to many infirmities. But the human soul is dauntless.

Francis A. Burdett was a watchmaker in a New Jersey town, a few years ago. One day a moving van knocked him down, and when he recovered his strength he was totally blind. He was past 60 years old, too. But his soul was ageless and independent of bodily organs of vision. Francis A. Burdett became a carpenter.

Mrs. Burdett is a trained nurse. She went out nursing the sick.

"Don't think about taking care of me," said the courageous head of the household. "I can take care of myself."

So Francis A. Burdett, well past three-score years, planned a handsome six-room Colonial house.

"See," he said to his wife, "this shall be our home for our latter years. When it is finished you will leave off nursing the sick, and we'll settle down to take life easy."

"But who will build our house; such a large and handsome house?"

"I will."

Francis A. Burdett hired a man to help him dig the cellar. Then he laid the foundation himself, and went to work to build that home. He followed his own plans and specifications. All summer long the neighbors saw this elderly blind man, working away with hammer and saw and adze and draw-knife. By fall the frame was up for the whole house.

All winter the tall, unbowed figure of the courageous blind man was to be seen, climbing up ladders and walking along narrow scaffolding, making joints tight and braces firm. Early in the morning the gray man toiled, and late in the evening he was hammering away. Passersby wondered why any carpenter should be so industrious as to work in the dark. Francis A. Burdett worked always in the dark.

And in the spring the new home was roofed over and completed.

Joy and long life to you, Francis Burdett! You have shown us how indomnitable is the human soul at its best.

TIN MILL AND OVERLANDS TO BATTLE TONIGHT

Game Decides League Tie-Up

Tin Mill Boys Favored To Defeat Overlands In Crucial Game Tonight

METHODISTS MEET IMPERIALS FOR TITLE

Two championship floor games will be played on the Y. M. C. A. court tonight. The first game will bring together the First Methodists and Gerson Imperials in the New Castle Church League tilt, and the second affair will find the Tin Mill and Rick-Overland quintets battling for the supremacy of the City Industrial League. The first game is billed for 8 o'clock.

The Church League championship is at stake in the Methodist-Imperial battle tonight. The Methodists won the first-half of the league race and the Imperials captured the second-half. The game tonight should be a fast one. Both teams are on edge for the important engagement. The Methodists are the favorites, but the Imperials may spring a surprise. Anyway the game promises to be an interesting affair.

Title At Stake

The Tin Mill and Rick-Overlands will fight it out for the championship of the second-half of the league race in the second game of the program. The Tin Mill boys won the right to play for the second-half title by defeating the Overlands in a recent game. The league race is now deadlocked. If the Tin Mill boys capture the game tonight they will automatically become the City League champions, by virtue of their victory in the first-half of the season.

There is an intense rivalry between the two teams and the battle tonight promises to be a hard fought one. The Rick-Overlands have a last ditch engagement on their hands and they are within sight of the championship.

Walter E. Kirker announced today that he had secured "Hickory" Hetra, former Westminster floor star to referee the game tonight, and it is also possible that an umpire will be secured for the game.

Preparations have been made to handle the largest crowd of the year at any local institution court tonight. Both teams have a large following of fans eager for the fray.

Bearcats Defeat Athletics 19-18

The Bearcats nosed out the Athletics 19 to 18 in a fast game played on the Y. M. C. A. floor on Saturday afternoon. The game was decided in the final minute of play.

The Athletics held a lead of 11 to 8 at the end of the first half, but the Bearcats uncorked a rally in the two final periods that brought them victory. The work of Marquis and Sergent featured for the winners, with Mancine and Sankey the best for the Athletics.

The lineup and summary:—

Bearcats 19		Athletics 18
Sergent	F	Mancine
E. Marquis	F	Sankey
Brenner	C	Vago
Mackey	G	Paulini
Williams	G	Soyring

Subs—Valle, Sage. Field goals—Sergent, Marquis 2, Valle, Brenner, Mackey, Mancine 3, Sankey 2, Vago. Fouls—Bearcats, 7 out of 12; Athletics, 6 out of 18. Referee—Clark.

Electric Midgets Defeat Orioles

The Electric Shop Midgets of Ben Franklin Junior High won their eleventh straight victory on Saturday by toppling the East Side Orioles under a score of 27 to 11. The game was played on the Franklin court.

The playing of Hanlon and Fabian was the best for the winners, while the work of Drake and Remley featured for the Orioles.

The lineup and summary:

Electrics 27		Orioles 11
Rich	F	Lascolo
Hanlon	F	Remley
Calaluca	C	Drake
Sanders	G	Potter
Fabian	G	Newell

Field goals—Hanlon 4, Fabian 3, Calaluca 3, Rich 2, Sanders, Drake 2, Newell 2, Remley.

Fouls—Electrics 1 out of 3. Orioles 1 out of 2.

Referee—Sir Walter Shook.

TILDEN DEFEATS ALONZO IN FIVE GRUELLING SETS

MIAMI, Fla., March 7.—William Tilden, first ranking tennis star, defeated Manuel Alonso of Spain's Davis Cup team and second ranking player, 6-3, 7-9, 5-7, 6-4 and 6-2, to win the south Florida singles championship.

Tilden found easy going in the first set, breaking through Alonso's service almost at will to score an easy 6-3 advantage. The Spaniard staged a determined comeback in the second set.

The third set found Alonso pressing his advantage vigorously, while Tilden seemed nonplussed by the frequency with which his strokes were finding the net. Although Alonso put up a game battle for the fourth set, he was helpless when Tilden got his backhand working. The fifth and deciding set was even easier for Tilden, who broke through Alonso's service twice and captured the set and match, 6-2.

Debaters From Westminster To Go To Cleveland

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Westminster college will send three varsity debaters to Cleveland, Ohio, next Thursday to debate with Western Reserve that evening. The engagement will be an open forum debate. Two of Westminster's debaters will argue the affirmative side while one will be on the negative. This means that two Westminster debaters will have a Western Reserve man as a partner while one of Westminster's representative will team with two Western Reserve men.

"Resolved, that the United States should cancel the war debts owed it by the allied nations," is the question to be debated. The decision will be rendered by the audience.

Westminster's trio has not been definitely chosen, although it is expected that two of the men will be Robert Ferguson of Bellevue and Brown Bricker of Braddock. Dr. C. A. Dawson, faculty coach will probably accompany the team.

Croton Team To Have Meeting

The Croton A. C. baseball team will hold an important meeting on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Vine street fire department. Announcement of the meeting was made today by Tommy Clark.

The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers and to formulate plans for the coming baseball season. All players and others interested in the team this year are urged to attend the meeting.

In the past college year 2287 girl students at the University of Michigan participated in outdoor sports.

RICHEST GOLF TOURNEY TRIBUTE TO BOBBY

Atlanta, Ga., home of Bobby Jones, is preparing to entertain the outstanding kings of the golf world March 23-26 in what will be the richest open championship golf tourney in the country's history. A purse of $12,000 is awaiting the pros who enter the meet. The amateurs, of course, will draw glory as their share. The tourney is really a tribute to Jones, home town boy and now British open and U. S. open champion. Atlanta, boasting of "the greatest golfer," wants to stage the greatest tourney to further its claim to the title of center of the golfing world. Above are some of the stars entered.

Fugazy Plans To Stage Three Championship Bouts

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'al News Service

NEW YORK, March 7.—Always in there striving, Humbert J. Fugazy emerged from the silence today to claim that he had stolen a march on his arch-rival, T. Rickard, by lining up three world's championship matches in the lighter classes for the outdoor season. Claiming is only a minor vice, however, and its upkeep is almost nothing.

Three Title Bouts.

Therefore, I understand Humbert has laid claim to the following attractions without a moment's hesitation:—

Sammy Mandell, champion, versus Sid Terris, challenger for the lightweight title.

Mickey Walker, champion, versus Tiger Flowers, ex-champion, for the middleweight title.

All of the above principals are said to have agreed to terms and the bouts will be duly held, it is claimed, either at the Polo Grounds or Ebbets Field. The locale has been made a bit indefinite but that is not altogether surprising in view of prevalent rumors that Humbert is a bit indefinite himself as to where he is going and when. He was supposed to have the Polo Grounds sewed up but the tip now is that some of the stitches may be breaking out.

Incidentally, Rickard's rival is said to be the possessor of strictly private information that may prove of interest to Chicago. It is believed to be a tip, emanating from sources unknown, that Jim Mullen's bantamweight title match between Bud Taylor and Tony Canzoneri will not be fought "at the weight." The weight referred to means the bantam limit of 118 pounds.

Mr. Fugazy, being in the mood, is disposed to claim this one, too. From a source very close to him, it is said that he plans to bring the pair back for a 118-pound meeting this summer and declare the winner as champion. The same source is responsible for the other pre-dated announcements.

The program outlined is within the bounds of possibility, at that. After Walker had gained that disputed decision over Flowers in Chicago, Jack Kearns is understood to have tried to peddle the return bout to Rickard without success.

It seems that Kearns mentioned $200,000 as Walker's end, when in reality he meant the promoter's end if he granted the terms.

Kearns, of course, merely was stalling until the outdoor season, and, since Fugazy is a wild bidder and Rickard and Kearns are not the playmates they once were, anything may happen. Flowers' manager naturally will play ball on anything for the chance to regain the title.

LATZO TO RISK FISTIC CROWN

Will Be Fifth To Dare Jinx That Took Three Titles

CHICAGO, March 7.—The fifth champion to risk his boxing title against the Illinois jinx, Pete Latzo, premier welterweight, will test the hoodoo this week against Joe Simonich of Montana.

Three champions lost their titles here in the first year of legalized boxing, and the fourth saved his, only by making his opponent come in over the weight, so the verdict of defeat did not cost him his crown.

The Latzo-Simonich 10-rounder of next Thursday night twice has been postponed because of the champion's split lip, which is now nearly healed.

Rocky Kansas started the parade of champions dethroned in Illinois by losing his lightweight title to Sammy Mandell in the opening show of the boxing revival last Memorial Day.

Charley (Phil) Rosenberg lost his bantamweight title so far as Illinois is concerned, when he couldn't or wouldn't make the weight for a Bud Taylor match. New York's commission later took away his title there, too. Tiger Flowers' middleweight title was awarded to Mickey Walker, although a large part of the crowd seemed to think the Atlanta deacon should have had at least a draw.

Mushy Callahan, junior welterweight titleholder, made Spug Meyers come in over the title weight and so saved his crown, but lost the decision.

Latzo emerged with a decision over Simonich at Philadelphia last December.

"Babe" Ruth long entertained a plan to go into the dairy and poultry business when he retires from baseball. Now he is said to have abandoned this ambition in favor of the establishment of a physical training institute.

Baptists Defeat Sacred Hearts

First Baptist Team Downs Sacred Hearts In Fast Game 27 To 24

The First Baptist team downed the Sacred Hearts by a score of 27 to 24 in a game played Saturday night on the Y. M. C. A. court.

The game was fast and hard fought with the Baptists holding the lead throughout the game. The score at half time favored the Baptists 12 to 9. The Hearts rallied in the third and fourth periods but fell short three points of tying the count.

Venditto, Banjo and DiThomas were the best for the Hearts, while the work of Gibson, H. Orr and R. Orr brought victory to the Baptists.

The lineup and summary:

Sacred Hearts 24		Baptists 27
A. Venditto	F	Gibson
DiThomas	F	R. Orr
B. Venditto	C	H. Orr
J. DiMuccio	G	Whaley

Overlands Lose At Wilmerding

Hilltop "Y." Team Noses Out Locals In Tourney Game By Score 22-18

The Rick-Overlands, representing the New Castle Y. M. C. A., in the annual association tournament at Wilmerding on Saturday afternoon were defeated by the Hilltop "Y" team 22 to 18 in a fast battle.

By virtue of their defeat the locals were eliminated in the first round of play in the tourney. The locals gave the Pittsburgh team a hard fight for honors, and had it not been for the long tiresome ride to Wilmerding they might have secured a victory.

The Hilltop boys had a lead of 5 to 0 at the end of the first quarter of play. The second quarter was closer and found the locals playing a faster game. The end of the first half found the locals trailing 10 to 4. Cuba scored the only field goal for the Overlands in the first half, a long shot from midfloor.

The Pittsburgh team started to drop them in from all angles at the start of the third session and it was not long until they held a comfortable lead. The score at the end of the third quarter was 21 to 6.

Coming out of a trance in the fourth quarter the Overlands limbered up somewhat and found their bearings. The locals displayed a clever passing attack and rang them in from all angles of the court. Every member of the Overland team caged the spheroid at least once. The Hilltop boys were bewildered at the fast work of the locals and only the fact that they had gained such a tremendous lead in the first three sessions saved them from defeat.

The work of Knoepp and Barclay featured for the winners with Hoyland, Cuba and Kirker the best bets for the locals. The entire Overland team played a fine brand of basketball.

The lineup and summary:

Overlands 18		Hilltop "Y" 22
Cuba	F	Knoepp
Nocera	F	Barclay
Uhle	C	Meider
C. Jones	G	Durbin
Kirker	G	Taylor

Subs—Baptiste, Hoyland, Joseph.

New Castle Compiles Impressive Record As Sectional Champions

New Castle Has Edge Over Duquesne And Vandergrift On Paper

Locals Hold Opponents To 129 Points; Play-Off Game March 11

By "BUGS" WALTHER

On paper the New Castle high section IV championship team appears to have the edge over Duquesne high and Vandergrift high. These paper-weight records, however, are not much account and are generally taken at face value.

As stated before in this paper New Castle will go to Pittsburgh on Friday night, March 11, to play in the annual W. P. I. A. L. tourney for the title of western Pennsylvania. Just what team will face the locals is not definitely decided as yet. It will either be Duquesne or Vandergrift, depending on the outcome of the meeting of these two schools on Tuesday, March 8. From indications it will be Duquesne, but one can never tell what will happen when good friends get together.

Lost to "Dukes".

New Castle high clashed with the "Dukes" last year and were defeated 27 to 20 in a sizzling hot battle at the new Pitt stadium pavilion. The locals are more than anxious to right this setback and therefore they are pulling for the "Dukes" to crash through in their conflict with the Vandergrift team tomorrow night.

New Castle high in nine games as members of section IV has compiled a far more enviable record than has Duquesne in section VII and Vandergrift in section VIII. The locals scored a total of 242 points in nine games against 129 for their opponents. The "Dukes" scored 297 points against 191 in ten games and Vandergrift scored 268 points agianst 231 in 11 games.

The New Castle team won eight games and was defeated but once, that by Ellwood City.

The Duquesne team came through with nine victories and one reverse. Vandergrift won eight and were defeated three times. The Vandergrift boys by defeating Ford City on Friday night 25 to 24 won the sectional title in their district.

Following is a compilation of records of the three teams that may figure in the elimination game for Friday night, March 11:

New Castle High.

New Castle 32, Evans City 16.
New Castle 25, Mars high 19.
New Castle 35, Zelienople 19.
New Castle 23, Butler 18.
New Castle 24, Ellwood City 7.
New Castle 22, Evans City 9.
New Castle 34 Zelienople 12.
New Castle 34 Butler 11.
New Castle 13, Ellwood City 18.
Totals—New Castle 242, opponents 129.
Won eight, lost one.

Musketeers Trim Buccaneers 36-25

The Musketeers defeated the Buccaneers by a score of 36 to 25 in the preliminary game at the Y. M. C. A. floor on Saturday night. The game was played prior to the Tin Mill-Westminster Reserve game.

The Musketeers went into an early lead and held their advantage throughout the four quarters. The first half found the "Muskies" leading 23 t 10. Woods, Hannon and Clark were the big scorers for the winners. For the Buccaneers the playing of McClymonds, Tyrell and Wallace featured.

The lineup and summary.

Musketeers—36.		Buccaneers—25

College Reserves Defeat Tin Mill

Close Contest Occurs On Y. Floor Here On Saturday Night

FINAL SCORE SHOWS COUNT OF 28 TO 20

Westminster College's Reserve basketball team made it two straight for the season over the Tin Mill team of the New Castle Industrial League Saturday evening, when the United Presbyterians won 28-20 on the New Castle Y. M. C. A. floor before an interested crowd.

The game was bitterly contested, the quintets being unusually evenly matched. The New Castle boys, accustomed to the "Y" floor, started off with a hop and when the first quarter had ended, were leading 6-4. In the second half, the college boys began to find themselves, and forged to the front. They held a 16-8 lead at the half.

Play throughout the second half was fast and rough, two of the Westminster lads being ejected from the game on personal fouls and one Tin Mill player.

Westminster seemed determined to carry off the victory as their lead was considerably increased in the third quarter. At its close the scoreboard showed a count of 24-15 in their favor. Try as they might, the Tin Mill passers were unable to rally in the final period.

Gennock showed the way to New Castle's basket shooters, the little forward netting the sphere four times. McCullough of Westminster, had the same number while Thomas had a brace of baskets.

Westminster had previously defeated the Tin Mill outfit at New Wilmington. The lineup:

Westmintser		New Castle
McCullough	F.	Gennock
Penberthy	F.	Zubowski
Gibson	C.	Frazier
Phillips	G.	Volesko
McClintock	G.	Sumner

Substitutions: Reserves—Thomas for McClintock, McClure for Penberthy, McClintock for Gibson, Gibson for McClintock, McClintock for Phillips, Phillips for Thomas, Penberthy for McClure, Lauder for McClintock; New Castle—Melder for Zubowski, Lewis for Frazier, Hoskins for Sumner. Field Goals—Westminster, McCullough 4, Gibson, McClintock, Thomas 2; New Castle, Gennock 4, Zubowski 2, Frazier. Foul Goals—Westminster, 10 out of 20; New Castle, 6 out of 18. Referee—Nolte.

Liberty Passers Cancel On Butler

The Liberty passers have cancelled their game with the Butler Crescents for tonight. The Liberty Five has scheduled the Butler team for a game here Wednesday night on the Lincoln-Garfield court. The game will start at seven o'clock.

The following players should report for the game Wednesday night: Manager Tino, Jenkins, Nocera, Rogovin, Reiber, Parker, Roher and Solomon.

King McNamara — By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1927, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

How does he do it? Fourteen years of a bone-bruising, sinew-crushing sport and still able to carry on! Behold Reggie McNamara, the "king of six-day bike riders," winner of 11 long grinds, second in seven others, hero of innumerable jams, and a real "iron man" if there ever was one! Wotta man! Wotta man! Here he is riding in the 42nd international six-day race at Madison Square Garden, New York, and he'll probably be riding in the 52nd five years from now!

To my mind, the greatest examples of courage and heroism in sports in the last year or so were Jess Sweetser's victory in the British amateur golf tournament while suffering from influenza and four or five other ailments; Jack Delaney's heroic stand against Paul Berlenbach in December, 1925, after an accident to his knee had nearly ended his ring career; and McNamara's and Linari's victory in the 41st annual six-day bike-race last December, after a series of accidents, any one of which would have put the ordinary mortal in the hospital. In spite of, bruises scrapes, dislocations, cuts, scratches, splinters, and not to speak of being dead tired from six days and nights of pedaling around dangerous turns in a smoke-laden atmosphere, these two courageous athletes didn't know what the word "quit" meant and carried on in spite of their agony to a glorious victory.

To answer the question at the beginning of this piece, the lion-hearted Anzac does it in the following way, to quote excerpts from an interivew with the iron man by "Sparrow" Robertson, published in the Paris Herald last winter:

"Four or five weeks before a race I start riding 50 or more miles each alternate day at a fast pace over the roads or on a track. The other days are given over to cross-country running, which generally takes in about 15 miles. That sort of work is done in the forenoons, after having had a good night's sleep. And don't forget that an hour or two of sleep before 12 o'clock will do much more good than twice the number of hours after midnight. I make it a rule while training to be in bed by 9 or 10 o'clock. In the morning I am up about 7."

Feg Murray Says—

The lady who thought Jim Maloney must be a humorist because he once joined a glee club should meet the gent who concluded that Lloyd of the Navy must be a southpaw because he played left wing on the football team.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

IN THE LAND OF BASEBALL, March 5.—Recalling the past actions of New York Yankee fans I'm inclined to wonder what the future will hold for Miller Huggins of the Yankees, who made a runaway race of it most of last season, get away on the wrong foot this season, or run into a slump in midseason.

Despite the fact that Huggins has given the Yank fans four league pennants in six years he has been ridden repeatedly—on the slightest provocation—dating from the days of Roger Peckinpaugh's service with the club.

When the midget manager let Peck go it was shouted by the hammer brigade that the brilliant shortstop had been eased out because he had managerial aspirations.

HUGGINS MAY HEAR FROM TRIS DEAL

When Tris Speaker was peddling his services a few weeks ago Huggins talked over things with the star centerfielder and then let it be known that the two had failed to reach an agreement because of Huggins' refusal to promise Spoke a permanent job in the lineup. Huggins, it was said, did not care to break up his present outfield combination of Meusel, Combs and Ruth.

Now that trio—going at top speed—is worthy of any ball club. Ruth's fame is well known. Meusel, when he is right, is a brilliant hitter and a good fielder. Combs is a speedy fielder and good hitter and besides that is a comer.

But, just supposing that the curly-haired Meusel has an off year—he wasn't so good in the world's series last fall. Supposing he slips to such an extent that Huggins is forced to shift his lineup. Or Ruth or Combs are forced out of the game temporarily.

"How nice Speaker would look in there right now," will be the comment.

And the next step will be to ride Mr. Huggins because of an alleged lack of enthusiasm regarding the acquisition of Speaker because of the dangers attached thereto from Huggins' standpoint.

This would be more than unjust to Huggins, as I know him. But that doesn't matter. The New York fans are consistant in their views.

NORMAN E. BROWN.

By NORMAN E. BROWN.

IN BASEBALL LAND, March 7—There was no scandal in the baseball peanut business last year.

I have this on the word of Joe Stevens, whose company is to blame for the boys standing in front of you at the Polo grounds, Yankee Stadium, the Boston parks—as well as a dozen big race tracks about the east and south.

"A few packages were thrown" says Joe "but they either fell into the hands of the wrong person or on the floor. The boys soon found that it paid to deliver the goods."

This Joe person knows his peanuts. He keeps them straight, simply through one thing—system. He has a card index system that traces every peanut from mine to consumer.

It may or may not mean anything to the Senators in the way of a peanut to have Tris Speaker in the lineup. But it's very apparents from the talk down here that he has already done one thing. He has lifted the Senators out of the One-Man club category. The senators now have Walter Johnson and Tris Speaker to the personal knowledge of all baseball fans. Up to a few weeks ago Walter carried the burden.

G. B. Shailer, a policeman of Sydney, has lost his title of Australian amateur billiard champion, to L. W. Hayes, a schoolmaster.

Jack Elliott, who has been making a good showing in recent bouts in New York, is a former British amateur middleweight champion.

Wilmington Aces Defeat Trojans

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 7—Flashing a strong attack and a stronger piece of guarding the New Wilmington Aces defeated the New Castle Trojans 40-22. The game was played on the Wilmington floor Friday evening.

Up to the time of the third quarter the game was clase and hard fought, from then on it was hard fought but the Aces took matters into their own hands and ran wild with an attack, the result of which would take the pep out of many a stronger team than the Trojans.

Lewis and Hutchison were strong in scoring for the victors while Kaufman and Bogdan took the lead for the invading team.

The manager of the Aces would like to get in touch with any high class New Castle teams or with any other junior team able to get the High school or Y. M. C. A. floors for games. Any managers interested please call 58-G, New Wilmington or write Walter Hutchison, New Wilmington.

The lineup:

Aces—40.		Trojans—22
Lewis	F.	Bogdan
Trotter	F.	McCay
Worrall	C.	Kaufman
Eagleson	G.	Blird
Hutchinson	G.	Geddis

Subs: Craig for Blird.

Field goals: Lewis 7, Hutchinson 6, Trotter, Eagleson, Bogdan 3, Kaufman 3, Geddis, Craig, McCay 2.

Fouls: Aces 6 out of 7; Trojans 2 out of 3.

Training Camps

(International News Service)

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Mar. 7.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, going through their paces at their spring training camp under the watchful eye of Donie Bush, manager, have found a tough customer in Byron Speece, Indiana recruit underhand pitcher. The Pirate batters are failing to connect with the youthful Hoosier's offerings. The first yannigan-regular ball game is scheduled for Wednesday.

TAMPA, Fla.—The pruning knife began to fall today in the Senators' training squadron. Ben Shaw, a catcher, and Jack Blair, an infielder, were the first to go. Blair may go to the Yankees.

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla.—The Browns went to Sarasota today to meet the New York Giants in the first exhibition game of the season.

AVON PARK, Fla.—The Cardinals were getting in trim today for their games this week which open tomorrow with the University of Florida. Wednesday the Boston Braves come here and Friday a return game with the Braves will be played at St. Petersburg.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—Practically all hands were on deck today to start the second week of training for the Tigers. Only Gehringer, Neun and Tavener are missing. Blue, Redfern and Ruble arrived Sunday. Manager Moriarty is highly pleased with the advance his hopefuls have made.

AVALON, Catalina Island, Cal.—Elwood English, purchased by the Cubs from Toledo of the American Association, and Percy Lee Jones, the Texas southpaw, were among those present today when Manager Joe McCarthy called his hopefuls to the daily practice grind. There are now 33 Bruin prospects in camp. These will be weeded down to 25 by June 15.

SHREVEPORT, La.—Another six-inning practice game was in the offing today when Manager Ray Schalk summoned his huskies to the diamond. "Cracker" Schalk caught for one team. When he sounded the bell at the end of the sixth inning, calling a halt for the day, the teams were deadlocked 4 to 4.

SARASOTA, Fla.—The $500,000 infield of the New York Giants will get its first test today when the Giants tackle the St. Louis Browns in their first exhibition game of the season. McGraw will use his reversible outfield — Lebourveau and Tyson in left, Mueller and Moore in center and Harper and Reese in right.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Spring training begins officially at the Yankees' camp today with the arrival of the king of swat, Babe Ruth himself. Five other regulars—Dugan, Lazzeri, Koenig, Hoyt and Bengough—have arrived safe and signed.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Casualties continue to cripple the Brooklyn Robins. Johnny Butler and Arnold Statz reported and immediately were stricken with tonsilitis.

Dear Brother Lion:

We will have a combination program on Tuesday. Mr. Peairs is to speak to us on the Cathedral investment.

Lion Marousis is bringing some of his best acts to entertain us. You know that this means a hot program. Come.

Cordially yours,
L. H. McCAMIC,
Secretary.

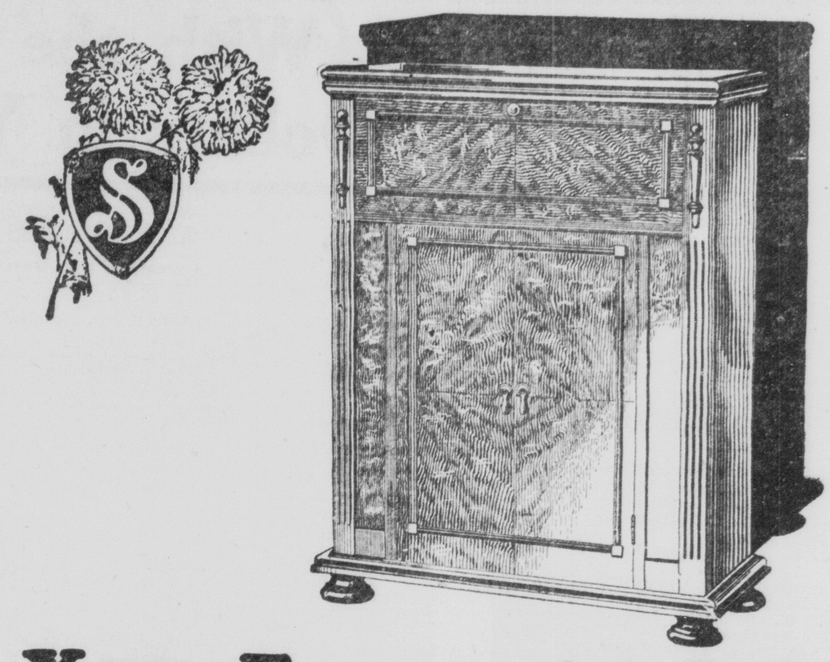
FOUND DEAD IN HIS GARAGE FROM MONOXIDE FUMES

CLEVELAND, O., Mar. 7.—His hands clutching the steering wheel of his automobile, Benjamin H. Zornow, 42, was found dead from carbon monoxide fumes in his garage Sunday.

Zornow went to the garage Saturday evening to drive to the Lake Erie Bolt & Nut Co. plant where he is shop foreman.

He failed to return and Mrs. Zornow asked Harry Cross, to help find him. Cross discovered the body, the garage doors closed and the motor dead from having run out of gasoline.

In these times a holder of the heavyweight pugilistic title makes more money in one fight than was made by any champion of a generation ago in the whole of his career.



You Foretold It!

A Radio Receiver without batteries of any kind—without battery substitutes, chargers or fussy connections! A Receiver that takes its power supply direct from a light socket!

That's what you've been long foretelling.

And now your prediction comes true in the amazing, beautiful Sparton 110-AC.

The simplest by far of all high-powered receivers—the easiest to care for—a receiver absolutely without a problem of power supply.

A receiver, too, of all-round ability, such as you have never before known.

That's the Sparton 110-AC—the crowning achievement of Sparks-Withington.

The Cabinet, $260; the Console, $375. Both are complete with tubes.

A full line of battery Spartons too.

Place Cyclone Death Toll At Thirty Mark

(International News Service)

CAPE TOWN, March 7.—The death toll in the Madagascar cyclone will not exceed 30 persons, but the town of Tamatave is completely devastated, according to an official dispatch from Tamatave received today.

The dispatch states that all buildings with the exception of the treasury and the postoffice were destroyed.

The cyclone was accompanied by a tidal wave.

Further evidence of the growing popularity of professional sports in Germany since the war is furnished by the announcement that Berlin is to have a new arena for indoor athletics with a seating capacity of 25,000. Under one roof there will be a bicycle track, a mammoth swimming pool, and a field large enough for football and all sorts of athletic events. The seats will be arranged in a circle, and the center of the hall will be crowned by a mammoth dome.

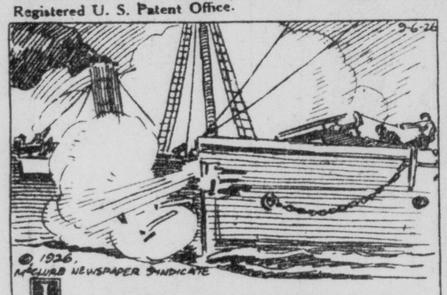
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

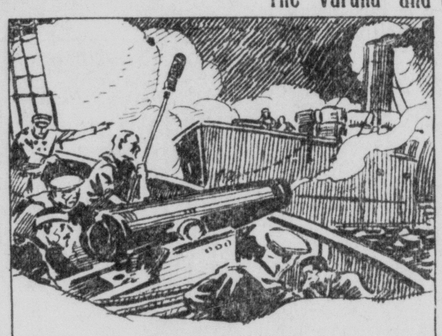
Registered U. S. Patent Office.

The "Varuna" and the "Governor Moore."

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

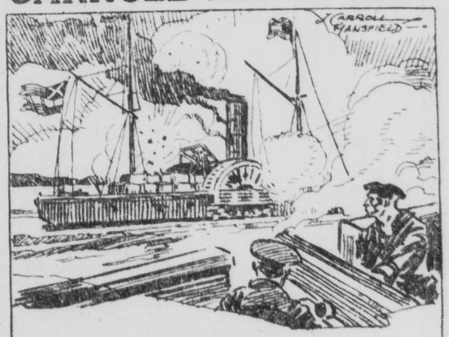


IN THE MEMORABLE ENGAGEMENT ON THE MISSISSIPPI THAT FOLLOWED FARRAGUT'S PASSAGE OF THE FORTS, THE BEST TRADITIONS OF THE AMERICAN NAVY FOR HEROISM AND RESOURCEFULNESS WERE UPHELD BY FEDERALS AND CONFEDERATES ALIKE. IN A DUEL WITH THE U. S. S. "VARUNA", LIEUT. BEVERLY KENNON OF THE CONFEDERATE "GOVERNOR MOORE" FIRED HIS BOW GUN THROUGH HIS OWN DECK IN AN ATTEMPT TO HIT HIS ADVERSARY BELOW THE WATER-LINE.



RAMMED BY THE "GOVERNOR MOORE" AND MUCH CUT UP, THE "VARUNA", UNDER CAPTAIN BOGGS, WAS AGAIN RAMMED BY THE CONFEDERATE STEAMER "STONEWALL JACKSON". THE "VARUNA" BEGAN TO SINK RAPIDLY, BUT HER CREW KEPT UP THE STRUGGLE.

AS THE "VARUNA" SANK, HER GUNNERS FIRED A LAST BROADSIDE AND WHEN OTHER FEDERAL VESSELS CAME ALONGSIDE THE WRECK TO TAKE OFF THE SURVIVORS, BOGGS WAVED THEM AWAY TO ENGAGE THE ENEMY SHIPS. CRIPPLED BY THE UNION FIRE, THE "STONEWALL JACKSON" WAS BEACHED AND BURNED.



AFTER HER FIGHT WITH THE "VARUNA", THE "GOVERNOR MOORE" AGAIN FEARLESSLY ENGAGED THE UNION FLEET, BUT WAS RIDDLED AND DRIVEN ASHORE BY THE GUNS OF THE "ONEIDA" AND "PENSACOLA", WHERE SHE WAS SET AFIRE BY THE ORDERS OF HER COMMANDER.

TOMORROW—THE RAM "MANASSAS."

Death Toll In Scottdale Blast Mounts To Three

(International News Service)

SCOTTDALE, Pa., March 7.—The death toll in the blast which wrecked the home of A. J. Porter near here Saturday night, today stood at three with the death of Sarah Porter, 12, in the Mt. Pleasant hospital. The other victims were Porter and his wife, Elizabeth.

George Porter, 87, father of Porter, and the latter's sister, who occupied a part of the home, were burned when they made their way out of the flaming building.

The blast followed a trip to the basement of the house by Porter and his wife to repair the carbide lighting system used on the farm. The first two victims were instantly killed, while Sarah, the daughter, was blown through a window and fatally injured.

In spite of the muckraking, George Washington is still good for a holiday.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 7.—The active stocks in both the industrial and railroad groups were under selling pressure in early trading today, in continuation of last week's moderate reactionary movement. Stocks were supplied chiefly from the professional sources, and the reactions in prices extended from 1 to 3 points.

The bears concentrated heavy selling on Baldwin Locomotive, Dupont and other leaders in the recent advance at the start of the new week. Oil stocks as a group sold lower on the high production reports and the unfavorable annual statement of the Marland Company, which earned only $6.05 a share in 1926, against $7.66 in 1925. General Asphalt, Atlantic Refining and Houston again displayed conspicuous strength.

Under the lead of U. S. Steel and General Motors, the market rallied in the second hour. Hudson Motors again forged to the front and the dividend rails were in good form. National Biscuit moved up sharply to a record high price of 105, and Reynolds Tobacco B gained about 5 points. Trading then returned to the dull and narrow professional pace.

Commodity markets were steady, with grain and cotton slightly higher. Industrial reports were favorable and trade comments cheerful. Call money 4 per cent.

Bullard To Head Radio Commission

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—President Coolidge today formally designated Rear Admiral W. H. G. Bullard, U. S. N., retired, as chairman of the federal radio commission.

Although without money because of failure of the deficiency bill, in congress, the commission is expected to organize shortly, using commerce department funds and equipment.

Two of the five commissioners were not confirmed by the senate but will serve under recess appointments.

West Palm Beach Winter Colony Abuzz

Rumors Peggy Hopkins Joyce And Stanley Comstock Are To Be Married

(International News Service)

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 7.—The exclusive winter colony here was abuzz today over persistent reports that Peggy Hopkins Joyce and Stanley Comstock, whose romances have been aired the country over are again together and seeking to be married.

Reports that they had been seen here and were bent on marrying gained strength in the gossip at Palm Beach today when it became known that several ministers had refused to perform the ceremony at high noon Sunday.

One minister, according to the reports, told Peggy she had better see Aimee Semple McPherson, the California evangelist, to which Peggy was said to have replied, "That's a good idea, maybe I will."

A couple giving the names of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hopkins has been spending lots of time together on a floating hotel here but denied they were Peggy or Stan.

Connie Almy, comely night club dancer at Miami Beach who recently was reported engaged to marry Comstock, was believed to be here today hunting Peggy and Stan.

Peggy was said to have left New York several days ago vowing she "would recover Stanley or die." Stanley was reported to have left Miami at the same time, telling relatives he needed a rest from publicity and would be in seclusion at Palm Beach for some time.

Still Silent About Mexico

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Mexican controversy marked time today with state department officials preserving absolute silence concerning all phases of the situation.

Under Secretary of State Grew declined this morning to confirm or deny reports that a new note, sharper in tone, had been dispatched to Mexico City. Neither would he comment upon the statement accredited to Ambassador Tellez in Mexico City that he would return to Washington shortly to resume his post.

The silence of the department on every aspect of the Mexican controversy has now continued for a week. Meanwhile, alarming reports and rumors that a break is not far off have gained great currency, but little confirmation.

Brewer Loses Suit For Libel Against Secretary Mellon

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—Charles B. Brewer, a former investigator for the department of justice, who startled the country several years ago by charging that millions of dollars worth of government bonds and other securities had been duplicated in the government printing office, lost his $500,000 libel suit against Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today.

Brewer's suit was based upon a letter Mellon sent to President Coolidge in which he characterized Brewer's charges as "absurd."

The district supreme court decided Mellon's letter was "privileged" and could not properly be made the basis for libel.

Battlefront In China Is Quiet

By ALFRED MEYER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SHANGHAI, Mar. 7.—The battle fronts where the Northern and Southern Chinese are at grips for the possession of Shanghai were quiet today, but hostilities were expected to be resumed at any hour.

General An Kuo-Chun, Northern commander, has fortified the Soo-Chow hills at the entrance to Wukiang, preparatory to making a determined defence against the Nationalists, who have now advanced to Panwang,, on Lake Taihu. Seven thousand Northern troops are now holding Wukiang, with An Kuo-Chun reinforcements coming up steadily from Nanking. Foreign observers declare that An Kuo-Chun's position is impregnable.

Practically all of the foreigners have evacuated Soochow except for some customs officials and a handful of American missionaries.

Sun Chuan Fang's forces and the Shantung armies have formed a junction some thirteen miles to the south of Soochow.

P. & L. E. CLAIM AGENT IS SHOT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 7.—Howard G. Mesing, 28, of Brentwood, a suburb, claim agent for the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad here, was shot and seriously wounded at his office here today by a former railroad laborer who identified himself as Mike Dolinchak, 45, according to police.

Mesing was shot in the right side by the man, who was overpowered by railroad police. He would give no motive of the attack, but said he had been recently released from a hospital following an injury suffered at a railroad camp, and had since received help from charity institutions.

Mesing was rushed to a hospital, where it was said an immediate operation was necessary.

The assailant was held on an open charge pending outcome of Mesing's injury.

Two Are Killed; Four Missing In Buffalo Fire

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 7.—An explosion followed by fire early today in a paraffine tank at the Atlas works of the Standard Oil company here, killed two men, Patrick Kirby and George Christ and did $500,000 damage before it was brought under control. Four other men were still missing this morning.

Farmhand Leaves; Find Farmer Dead

(International News Service)

ALBANY, N. Y., March 7.—Charles Reitz, 60, a farmer, living six miles south of Albany, was murdered in his barn early today. His head had been crushed and his throat cut.

Mrs. Reitz told the authorities that Andrew Tillinger, 45, a farmhand, disappeared an hour before she discovered her husband's body.

Robbery is believed to have been the cause of the slaying.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Keeping healthy is largely a matter of diet. To get the best results choose a liberal, varied diet containing plenty of milk, eggs, fruit and vegetables. Start the day with the breakfast menu printed below.

Baked Prunes and Apricots
Whole Cereal with Cream
Whole Wheat Toast
Bacon Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Baked Prunes and Apricots—One pound prunes, one-half pound of apricots, cold water to cover. Wash the fruit and cover with the water. Let stand twenty-four hours and cook in a covered baking dish about one hour until tender. This long slow cooking develops the sugar in the fruit and provides a thick sweet sirup. Sugar may be added if desired.

SUGGESTIONS

Clean Hands

When the hands become grimy there is nothing better than corn meal for cleaning them. Lather the hands freely with soap, then rub corn meal in thoroughly. The result will be soft clean hands.

Worn Carpet

When the seams of the carpet begin to show wear and become faded, buy soft crayons or paints the shade of the rest of the floor covering and touch up the worn places with these. You will be surprised how quickly they will take away that worn look.

Why You Do It.

Two good reasons for keeping household accounts are to have a permanent record of what is required and what is spent and to have a guide for the future.

Saves Your Temper

If you find the boiled icing is not going to be stiff enough after adding the sugar to the egg whites, add a little confectioners' sugar until it is thick enough to spread nicely. It will do the trick and you will probably like the smooth texture ever better than the plain boiled frosting.

Hang It Up

Always keep a coat hanger in the sewing room. Then when making a new dress it can be kept in a hanging position and you will be surprised how much better it will look when finished than if you put it away in a bundle after working on it.

Important Trifles.

Always rinse dishes first in cold water that have contained eggs or milk.

Windows will never steam if a proper circulation of air is kept moving in the room.

Small lollypops are attractive on the children's birthday cakes as a change from candles.

Always serve fish with utensils of silver, as steel imparts a very distasteful flavor to the fish.

"Bathing Nun"

"The bathing nun" is the title bestowed on Miss Eloise Lowenthal of Chicago, because of her nunlike costume worn on the beach at Miami, Fla.

NAMED PRETTIEST WAITRESS

Olive Hillman, has been named the most beautiful waitress in Buffalo, N. Y. She has just won the title in a waitress-beauty contest.

"House Mother"

Mrs. K. M. Burrus, of Louisville, Ky., above, is trying a new experiment in a fraternity house at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisc. She is one of the first fraternity "house mothers" in the United States. Mrs. Burrus is present at all the social affairs at the fraternity, and at all their meals. She believes that the boys need a woman's influence and expects to be called on for any problems that they might take to their own mothers.

Compulsory Chapel Attendance Again To Become Effective

Students At Westminster To Be Required To Attend Chapel

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Westminster college is to again have compulsory chapel. This is the latest announcement from Dr. W. Charles Wallace, president of the college.

Until the present school year, compulsory chapel was a tradition as Westminster. However, with the start of the first semester, it was found that there were more students than there were chapel seats in the chapel of Old Main, the administration building, which was destroyed by fire January 24.

Decision was finally reached by the faculty to make chapel attendance compulsory only for Freshmen, upper classmen being permitted to choose as they pleased. Until the disastrous fire, this arrangement was carried out.

However, since chapel services were instituted in the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church, attendance was not compulsory for any one and the attendance slowly dwindled.

Recently the faculty met, and decided to again make chapel compulsory as there is sufficient seating capacity in the church. The attendance will be checked daily.

The services are held daily at 11 a. m. with the exception of Saturday. Each student will be permitted one "cut" each week.

TO TRAIN COWTESTERS IN PENN STATE COURSE

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., March 7.—A training course for future cow testers will be offered at the Pennsylvania State College, March 28 to April 2, C. R. Gearhart, dairy extension specialist in charge of cow testing associations in the state, announced today.

The work will include taking samples of milk, testing, keeping records, feeding, care and management. Many of the testers in Pennsylvania's 50 association got their start in just such a short course as this. Others who are no longer testers but who have become herdsmen, creamerymen, dairy council workers, or college students also prepared for testing in similar courses, which have been given periodically for several years.

National Guard Highly Commended At Inspection

GROVE CITY, Pa., March 7.—All units of the Pennsylvania National Guard stationed here attained a rating of "very satisfactory" in the federal and state inspection here at the local armory Friday night. This is the highest rating given by the inspectors. The Grove City units are regimental headquarters, first battalion headquarters, regimental headquarters company and first battalion headquarters company. The federal inspection was conducted by Major Alexander Johnson, instructor with special troops, 28th division, stationed at Philadelphia, Pa., while the state inspection was given by Major William S. Fish of the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Following the inspection Major Johnson publicly commended the organization upon their efficiency and manner in which they conducted the several tests. He stated that this was the best inspection which he had seen in the 56th Brigade, P. N. G. Major Johnson was followed by Col. C. Blaine Smathers, regimental commander, who also commended the Grove City companies upon their ability.

Dr. Slosson At New Wilmington This Evening

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 7.—Dr. C. A. Dawson, director of the lecture course at Westminster college, announced today that the lecture to be given by Edwin E. Slosson, famous scientist, this evening will be given in the United Presbyterian church instead of at the Community Hall, as previously announced.

Dr. Slosson is famed as an interesting lecturer. He is editor of the Science News Letter and is in charge of the Science service, an organization established by the American Chemical society to prepare accurate and popular write-ups on scientific material.

Rheumatism can't be rubbed away

Are you one of those unfortunates who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered from rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried most everything. Went to Hot Springs and finally I decided to try S. S. S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I also had a breaking out on my hands for years that nothing would heal, but now this has disappeared, and I am sure that it was S. S. S. which removed the cause. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S. S. S. is the best." Carl C. Campbell, 115 West Main Street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable. It is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Helps Others Who Suffer

Philadelphia Man Relieved Of Acid Stomach, Gastritis and Nervousness Wants Everyone to Hear How Tanlac Helped Him.

"Tanlac is a wonderful remedy," says Diodato Bassano, 205 South Alder street, Philadelphia. "For a year I suffered terribly from indigestion. At times the pain would nearly double me up. My appetite was poor and when I did eat, gas and acid formed in my stomach.

"Nervousness upset me so that I could not get a good night's sleep. Now the days of suffering are only a hideous dream. I feel better than ever before. My stomach never bothers me. I eat everything, too. I give Tanlac all the credit for my recovery."

This tonic, made from roots, barks and herbs, usually builds up weak bodies, relieves suffering, tones up the system. For better health take Tanlac. All druggists. 40 million bottles sold.
